WHO probe into origins of coronavirus a dud

The coronavirus is unlikely to have leaked from a Chinese lab and is more likely to have jumped to humans from an animal, a WHO expert said on Tuesday. WHO food safety and animal diseases expert Peter Ben Embarek made the assessment at the end of a visit to Wuhan, in central China, where a team of scientists is investigating the possible origins of the coronavirus. The first cases were discovered in the city in December 2019.

RESCUE EFFORT

- Over 100 personnel from ITBP, SDRF and NDRF part of the rescue team. In all, over 800 personnel are on the site. 700 personnel are on standby
- Two earthmovers have excavated over 6,700 tonnes of slush from the tunnel. They have reached 130 m into the 30 ft high, 25 ft wide tunnel. But muck removal is taking time, reducing the cleared part to 90 m
- A drone is being used to look inside the tunnel to find possible entry points through the slush/muck

RACE AGAINST TIME

Rescuers trying to reach 37 workers trapped in tunnel; 32 bodies found so far

VINEET UPADHYAY @ Dehradun

WITH the toll in the Uttarakhand disaster climbing to 32, rescue workers raced against time on Tuesday to save the 37 workers trapped deep inside the Tapovan tunnel since Sunday's flash floods that choked it with loads of slush. The 37 are part of the 174 others who are still missing.

Officials from the Army Medical Corps (AMC) said the trapped workers are not just without food and water, night time temperature within the tunnel could go down to as low as 2ºC. "They don't have food, water and additional amenities to shield themselves from the cold. Time indeed is running out for them," an AMC official agreed."

But officials associated with the project said workers have enough clothing to give them some protection from the freezing temperature. Rakesh Dimri, an official from NTPC said, "The workers have warm clothes, boots, helmet with headlight, a torch, a rope, a knife and other items. I hope they will be rescued."

The key to survival is the availablity of air vents, said medical experts. Dr Vipul Kandwal, a medical practitioner in Dehradun, said, "If they are not drowned, air passage would act as a lifesaver. The problem with sludge is it blocks almost everything, including oxygen."

Dr Adarsh Singh concurred. "Time is not on their side, as a human can survive without food or water or both for a week or so under such conditions." However, they do not rule out the possibility of a miracle. "We have witnessed miracles and I am certain that our forces will save all those men. Whole nation's prayers and wishes are with them," said Dr Singh.

Meanwhile, officials have deployed heli-bound Laser and Electromagnetic Pulse Imager to look for air pockets in the 1.9 km long tunnel network at the hydropower project site. Manjunath P C, commandant of Indian Reserve Battalion said, "This will act as a multiplier in our efforts to save the trapped workers."

Meanwhile, six bodies were found at different locations on Tuesday, including Raini village, Tapovan, Nandprayag, Karnpyarag and Haridwar, taking the total body count to 32. From within the tunnel, nine dismembered body parts were found. Also five vehicles that were swept into the tunnel have been recovered. They include a Scorpio and a JCB.

Naval divers have been deployed to search for bodies at various locations, including in the vicinity of the Tapovan project as more than 100 workers were at the site when tragedy struck.

Aparna Kumar, deputy-inspector general, ITBP, Dehradun sector said, "No stone has been left unturned to save those men. We have reached beyond 100 metres into the 180-metre stretch of the tunnel where the men are trapped." Many feel at this pace the operation to reach them could take three-four more days.

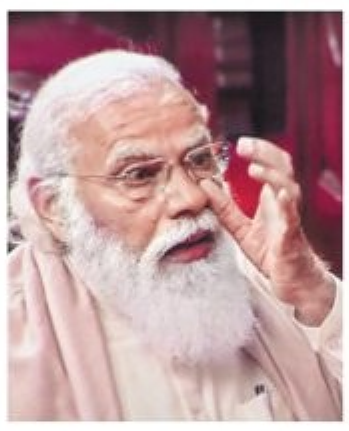
I'm proud to be a Hindustani Muslim: Azad in last RS speech

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

AN emotional Prime Minister Narendra Modi bade a tearful farewell to Leader of Opposition in Rajya Sabha Ghulam Nabi Azad, whose current tenure ends on February 15. Azad signed off with a poignant speech that drew a parallel between the lives of Muslims in India and Pakistan, and said he prided himself in being a Hindustani Musalman.



Prime Minister Narendra Modi wipes a tear as he bids farewell to Ghulam Nabi Azad | PTI

Asserting that India was untainted by the evil practices prevalent in countries like Pakistan, Azad said, "If any Muslim in the world should be proud, it should be the Hindustani Muslims. I am among those who have never been to Pakistan, but when I read about the evils that exist in Pakistani society, I think Hindustani Muslims should be proud."

Modi's speech was interspersed with many long pauses as he broke down while recalling his long association with Azad Describing him as his true friend. Modi said: "his work will inspire generations of MPs to come. Posts come, high offices come, power comes, but one must learn from Ghulam Nabi Azadji how to handle them."

Recalling the 2007 terror attack in Kashmir, where a grenade was lobbed at a bus carrying Gujarat pilgrims, Modi said, "Nabiji was as concerned as he would have been if his family members were victims. He was the first person to call me. During that call, he continuously wept," Modi said, adding that he would always expect Azad to share his inputs with him.

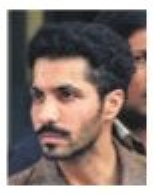
'Instigator' of Red Fort riots Deep Sidhu held

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi



SMALL-time actor Deep Sidhu, who was on the run after allegedly instigating a mob to desecrate the Tricolour at the Red Fort on Republic Day, was arrested from his hideout in Haryana's Karnal on Monday night. Sidhu carried a reward of ₹1 lakh.

A team of Southwestern Range of Special Cell led by Deputy Commissioner of Police (DCP) Sanjeev Yadav made the arrest around 10.30 pm at Karnal, where he had been hiding for the past 15 days. However, he kept releasing provocative videos to instigate Punjab and Haryana youth, police said.

Sidhu was produced before Metropolitan Magistrate Prigya Gupta at the Tis Hazari Court on Tuesday afternoon and was remanded in seven-day police custody. Crime branch officials claimed that the actor had instigated the mob to break the barricades with tractors. Yadav said Sidhu had been changing his location to evade arrest. Sources claimed Sidhu's friends had refused him accommodation and help. Sidhu was in touch with a California-based woman, who helped him upload the provocative videos through Facebook.

Warning Notice to Unauthorised Constructors in Dr. Shivaram Karanth Layout

The Process of creation of Dr. Shivaram Karanth Layout is in progress. It has come to the notice of the Authority that unauthorized buildings are being constructed and sold in the notified land areas. In this background, as per the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, all the buildings constructed and being constructed after 03.08.2018 are unauthorized. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has ordered to take action to remove these structures. The order of the court is as follows:

"To ensure that in the interregnum and from now onwards no further constructions come up. The Commissioner, BDA, would undertake exercise for satellite imaging of the area in question for identifying and noting the constructions as they exist. The said exercise would be undertaken within a period of three days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. This exercise would be repeated periodically every month. and in case any new constructions are noticed, they would be brought to the notice of the committee and action, including demolition etc. would be undertaken."

Regarding this issue the public has already been cautioned vide public notices several times. Even then some land owners have constructed buildings without authorization and construction work of some buildings are in progress. Engineers of the Authority have also issued notices to land owners who have constructed unauthorized buildings. Even then such unauthorized buildings are coming up. These unauthorized buildings will not be legalized and as per the order of the Hon'ble Supreme Court all the unauthorised structures constructed and being constructed after 03.08.2018 will be demolished. This Notice should be treated as a Public Notice.

SCHOOLS WRITE TO CM, SEEK REOPENING OF CLASSES 1 TO 5

Education dept to approach Technical Advisory Committee to check on feasibility

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE All Boards Association has written to Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa, demanding the reopening of classes one to five. This comes in the backdrop of the Supreme Court's directions to states and Union territories to reopen Anganwadis. The association, a collective of schools from across state, CBSE and ICSE Boards, has asked the government to underscore learning, admissions, attendance and minimum learning among students of classes one to five.

The government thus far has opened classes from 9 to 12, and Vidyagama from classes 6 to 8. The lower grades remain at home, attending classes on television or radio.

A top official from the education department told TNIE that they would shortly approach the Technical Advisory Committee on the reopening of classes one to five.

Meanwhile, the association has also asked the government to take a relook at the 30 per cent cut in tuition fees. When calculated, the association members said, it comes to 55 per cent to 65 per cent cut in fees. This would have a direct impact on the salaries of teaching and non-teaching staff, they added, seeking a more decentralised decision based on the schools' and the ability of parents to pay fees.

They deemed the NOC from the fire department and a certificate from the PWD department for the renewal of accreditation unfair, as they followed the minimum criteria established by the women and child welfare department. They sought an appropriate accreditation renewal criteria that would not be detrimental to students and educational institutes.

Meanwhile, the Managements of Independent CBSE Schools Association has written to Primary and Secondary Education Minister S Suresh Kumar objecting to the January 29 order on the reduction of fees.

It said the government decision was unilateral. "During the meeting convened by the Commissioner of Public instruction, different views were expressed by various associations. One particular association suggested 30% reduction but all the others objected to it. It is strange that the Commissioner announced, at the end of the meeting, that he was going to recommend 30% reduction. If this was predetermined, then the meeting was a farce," the association said.

"When parents have appreciated the efforts of schools and paid the fees as per the calendar of respective schools, there is no meaning in extending credit for the next year. Parents who have not been affected financially like those who continued to draw 100% of their salary do not need any reduction in fees," they added.

SUMMER HOLIDAYS TO BE CURTAILED: EDU MIN

Bengaluru : Primary and Secondary Education Minister S Suresh Kumar on Tuesday announced that summer holidays for schools will be curtailed this year to ensure a near-normal academic year for 2021-22. Speaking during a visit to the Karnataka-Maharashtra border districts, he said that to make up for lost time and prevent the compounding of delay in the next academic year, the Education Department has been working out a scheme to reduce the duration of holidays. As per department sources, with examinations ending in June and the next academic year beginning at the start of July, there will be a trimming of summer holidays. However, there will be no cancellation of holidays, an official clarified on the rumours making rounds. While the duration of the holidays is still being deliberated at the secretariat level, the discussion began when the time-table for state board examinations was announced in January-end.

Ramalinga Reddy to adopt schools in BTM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

FORMER home minister and BTM Layout MLA Ramalinga Reddy has decided to adopt all schools in his constituency and improve facilities in them. He has asked department officials to visit schools and to chalk out a detailed project report by February 16.

Reddy said that he is joining hands with Ramoji Gowda, B Mohan and Sagar from Mega Welfare Association to improve all schools in his BTM Assembly constituency. The department officials have been asked to check requirements at each school and schedule dates for starting and finishing works.

The idea of adopting schools, which was mooted by education department adviser M R Doreswamy, was popularised by Primary and Secondary Education Minister S Suresh Kumar.

Around Rs 200 crore has been raised under the programme, while the lion's share of it has come from Dakshina Kannada, which has contributed over half of this amount. Other districts that have raised considerable funds include Belagavi, Bengaluru North and South, Gadag, Udupi and Shivamogga.

The programme focuses on water, separate toilets for girls and boys, construction and renovation of existing buildings, developing school garden, fencing or compound wall, providing equipment and furniture, computers, computer training, laboratory, library, playground, play materials, training of teachers and students, sponsoring students and teachers for educational visits and sports meets, adopting girl, orphan, SC/ST and minority children and sponsoring scholarships among others.

Only 10% of city lakes have good water quality: Study

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

In all, 21 out of 210 lakes in Bengaluru city have excellent water quality, which can be used for drinking purposes, according to a study.

The study conducted by the CSIR-National Environmental Engineering Research Institute (NEERI) reveals that out of 21 lakes, which is 10 per cent of total lakes in the city, the Yelahanka Zone of BBMP alone has 11 with excellent water quality. In the report of Phase-1, NEERI not only studied the status of lakes but also suggested both short-term and long-term measures for their rejuvenation.

The NEERI report was submitted before a division bench of Chief Justice Abhay Shreeniwas Oka and Justice Sachin Shankar Magadum on Tuesday. The CSIR-NEERI was appointed by the Bruhat Bangalore Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) to study the lakes in Bengaluru, in response to the directions issued by the Karnataka High Court on a batch of public interest litigations relating to lakes.

Out of 210 lakes, the water quality of 36 lakes is very poor, which means that the water cannot be used for any purpose; and the water quality of 63 lakes is poor which can be used for irrigation but with restricted usage. Samples of some of the lakes could not be collected due to weeds and also as some were dry.

The main objective included the study of the causes of pollution of lakes, suggest short-term and long-term measures for their protection, ascertain the location of lakes which have disappeared with passage of time, and preparation of a master plan for rejuvenation and restoration of the existing ones.

As the inlet to the lake mostly carries the sewage along with the storm water, according to NEERI, technologies can be installed for the treatment of drain water and this treated water can be let into the lake. The two technologies of NEERI -- RENEU (In situ drain treatment of the lake) and Phytorid (a wetland system based sewage treatment) -- are proposed to be installed for the drain treatment of the lakes. The Detailed Master Plan for restoration of lake water quality for each lake will be addressed in Phase-II report, NEERI said.

It has suggested long-term measures like a multi-disciplinary approach for the conservation of the lakes. It has also suggested a management planning framework to provide a balance between ecosystem restoration and conservation for ensuring ecological integrity of lakes.

10th February : A rare planetary picture today highlights passionate Pluto. This particular combination is supremely romantic and nostalgic, and it's the perfect moment for dwelling in the past. The stars are giving us all permission to be as utterly passionate and sentimental as we like, so cynics and sceptics should keep quiet, please!

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
There's a very narrow dividing line between working activities and social ambitions. It looks very much as if a pet project that has been your personal preserve so far, may soon grow to include friends and colleagues. Besides which, it's a perfect day for a change of tack.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
Today may be mildly confusing and irritating. My advice would be to fit in with the lunar cycle by going all out for rest, relaxation, self-indulgence and personal pleasure. Stand up to pressures to conform, for people who want you to fit in don't always have your best interests at heart.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
In many ways the most hectic part of the week is only now beginning, but it's possible that a promised offer or invitation may vanish before your eyes, like a mirage in the desert. You'll have to move fast to achieve your deepest desires.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
Just a word about Mars, that aggressive planet which is beavering away in a busy region of your horoscope, and is causing one or two problems at work; don't get involved in unnecessary arguments. And don't believe any gossip, especially if it concerns somebody close.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
You may soon have to take urgent action, but just how urgent is another matter. In spite of certain personal questions, you may be under considerably less pressure to act than other people. And this means that you can time your own affairs until you sense you have the maximum advantage.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Your current Sun-Moon angle brings a turning point in a number of important personal cycles. There's just one problem though, and it's that as far as some people are concerned you may be past your sell-by date. Show these arrogant types just how wrong they are!

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
The Moon's movements over the next two or three days offer a preview of what will happen over the next two or three months. In a sense you may treat the next forty-eight hours as a sort of new beginning and a chance for a fresh start. It's an opportunity to be welcomed.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
The tension is mounting, but the strange fact is that developments which at first seem to be rather a drag may turn out to be exactly what you want. Hopefully, friends won't mind that you are now about to enter a much more secretive, but optimistic, phase.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Celestial pressures like those you're under at the moment don't occur every day. They do, however, happen about once a month, so you should recognise that today's fluctuations in your energy are part of a regular cycle. What's important is your ability to make the most of a personal opportunity.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
The fact that today's celestial influences are auspicious is encouraging. But you're not necessarily off the hook just yet. Even a moment's complacency may give someone else the chance to let you down, over-charge or mislead you! Keep a close watch on all such dubious situations.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Partners' willingness to co-operate and discuss certain long-term plans may make you somewhat uncomfortable. However, you should now be able to put your point of view with considerably more success. And that has to make you feel a great deal more confident.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Things are not easy, but then you're very intuitive and should be making all the right noises. Do everything you can to safeguard your long-term happiness and forge new social contacts. And someone you've been ignoring should now be in your thoughts.

COVID MAY BRING WITH IT DIABETES EPIDEMIC TOO

Virus damages cells in pancreas, high incidence of Type 1, 2 in recovered patients

CHETANA BELAGERE @ Bengaluru

HEALTH experts and virologists warn that a diabetes epidemic is set to sweep the country soon, if there is no plan on meticulously eradicating Covid-19. They say that so far, Type 1 and Type 2 diabetes were mostly due to overnutrition and sedentary lifestyle, but now, several studies have shown that patients hospitalised with Covid-19 are newly diagnosed with Type 1 or Type 2 diabetes. It's a trend medical experts are watching closely.

"It is known that Covid has the ability to worsen existing diabetes, but we are seeing that the virus is also triggering new-onset diabetes," said renowned virologist Dr John Jacob, Christian Medical College, Vellore.

He said the virus damages certain cells — known as beta cells — in the pancreas. They are found within another kind of cell, known as islet cell. The destruction of beta cells prevents the body from making insulin, triggering hyperglycemia. In this case, as the body needs glucose as energy (but can't use it), it turns to ketones — chemicals the liver makes when there is isn't enough insulin for energy.

The use of ketones signals the production of acids, which can also lead to a condition called diabetic keto acidosis, a potentially-fatal condition, he explained. In Karnataka, Dr Abhay Gundugurthi, consultant endocrinologist at Sagar Centre for Diabetes, said, "I've been seeing cases where many patients, due to Covid medicines, have shown diabetes. Interestingly, in some of them it has also reversed 8 to 10 weeks after recovery." A senior endocrinologist in Victoria Hospital said, "Follow-up patients returning to hospital are few. However, we see that the ones who come in have onset of diabetes. We are monitoring such patients closely to see if the condition reverses or is permanent. Right now, it's too early to say anything," the doctor explained.

However, endocrinologists and physicians warn that people with prediabetes, who are infected with Covid-19, should be aware of the general symptoms of diabetes, like increase in urination, thirst and appetite.

Dr C Nagaraj, Director of Rajiv Gandhi Institute of Chest Diseases, said they have seen patients with pre-diabetes, in whom stress has affected the metabolic system, leading to diabetes. They would have managed only with diet control, but post-Covid, there have been instances where insulin is needed to keep their diabetes under control.

Experts warn that this new epidemic is around the corner as the virus is changing the metabolic syndrome.

Indian embassy asks those stranded in UAE to return

VINCENT D'SOUZA @Mangaluru

ADDING to the woes of hundreds of Indians stuck in Dubai after Saudi Arabia's temporary suspension on travel from 20 countries, including India, the Indian Embassy in Abu Dhabi has asked these Indians to consider returning to India and make travel plans only after restrictions in destination countries are lifted.

The Kingdom of Saudi Arabia (KSA) announced a temporary suspension on travel on February 2 to curb the rise in Covid cases. Those who were already undergoing quarantine in Dubai and those who had already left India to Saudi Arabia were hit by the sudden decision.

Many Indians stayed put in Dubai, hoping that the temporary suspension would be lifted soon. But the advisory from the Indian Embassy, asking them to go back, has come as a rude shock to them. The advisory states that because of Covid restrictions, it is not possible currently for Indians to transit via Dubai and Abu Dhabi to Saudi Arabia and Kuwait.

The advisory says, "All Indian nationals are therefore advised to kindly ascertain the latest Covid-related travel guidelines of their final destination country before embarking on an outward journey from India. They are also advised to carry enough personal provisions and funds to cater to any emergency requirements. All those Indian nationals who are already in UAE en route to Saudi Arabia or Kuwait are advised to consider returning to India and make their further travel plans only after the restrictions in the final destination countries are lifted."

PA Hameed, an activist based in Riyadh, who had earlier written to External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar to bail out Indians stuck in the UAE, expressed disappointment over the Indian government's response, saying, "India could do more than this."

He said that a majority of those stranded in the UAE are blue-collar workers who had returned to India several months ago after losing jobs when the pandemic struck. Now they are returning and many of them have raised loans to fund their travel and are in deep trouble because of travel restrictions. Some are on visit visas, while job visas of others are expiring within a few weeks.

Hameed said that returning to India is not an easy option for them, especially for blue-collared workers. "It is a double whammy for them. They have spent their money, time, energy and strictly complied with all Covid norms and guidelines and now they are being asked to go back. The Indian government should initiate diplomatic talks with the Saudi Arabian government to at least allow these Indians stranded in Dubai to get into KSA with strict Covid norms. It will be a big relief for around 1,000 NRIs and their families. In the worst-case scenario, the Indian government should at least make repatriation arrangements for them," he urged.

Need to create awareness on dental health, says Sudhakar

Bengaluru: There is a need to create awareness among rural people about dental health, said Health Minister Dr K Sudhakar. Speaking at a programme to mark International Dentists' Day at Rajeev Gandhi University of Health Sciences on Tuesday, he said in rural areas, people visit dentists only after complications. "We have very low dental treatment cost compared to other nations. People should make use of this to keep their dental health in good condition," he added. ENS

BRUHAT Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) Commissioner N Manjunatha Prasad, along with Administrator Gaurav Gupta and special commissioners D Randeep and Rajendra Cholan, took the Covid-19 vaccine on Tuesday.

As part of Phase-2 of the Covid19 vaccination drive, many BBMP frontline workers also took the vaccine on Tuesday. After taking the jab, the Commissioner told officials to come forward and take the vaccine. He said that there should be no fear and they should set an example.

Prasad said that there is a set of instructions of what is permitted and what is not. "That should be clearly explained to people. If there are any fears, there are seniors to explain about it and clear doubts. No one should be forced, but stigma should end and rumours should not be spread," he said.

BBMP Commissioner N Manjunatha Prasad takes the jab at BBMP headquarters in Bengaluru on Tuesday

Pointing to frontline workers, he said that while other nations are demanding vaccines from India, it is being given free of cost to people in the country. So they should make use the opportunity, follow all protocols as prescribed and take the vaccine to build immunity, he added.

Govt likely to exempt alcohol from any fresh taxes or hike in duty; CM says pandemic has hit revenue collection for six to seven months

Budget date in a day or two, meetings on

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Davangere

CHIEF Minister BS Yediyurappa on Tuesday said he will present the state budget in the first week of March and the date will be decided in a day or two.

Speaking to reporters at Rajanahalli village in Davanagere, the Chief Minister said he has started holding pre-budget consultations with ministers and senior officers and that he will do his best within the financial constraints. "We are going to present a good budget for the year 2021-22," the CM said.

He said due to the pandemic, the revenue collection was not at the expected level for nearly six to seven months (of the financial year). "We are making all efforts to mobilise resources and revenue collection has improved in the last three months. It will improve further too," he said.

The CM was in Rajanahalli to attend a programme at the Valmiki mutt. The CM has started holding pre-budget meetings with ministers and officers from Monday. In the next two weeks, he will be holding a series of meetings with ministers and officers to discuss budget proposals from their departments.

Cheers! Alcohol to escape duty hike

BALA CHAUHAN @Bengaluru

THE State government is likely to exempt alcohol from any fresh taxes or hike in duty in the forthcoming Budget.

According to sources, the Chief Minister may not announce any increase in the Additional Excise Duty (AED) on Indian Made Liquor (IML) because any further increase in liquor prices may boomerang on the government as it may "encourage sale of seconds or non-duty paid liquor and other illegalities," the sources added.

The government had twice raised the AED in 2020. An increase of 6 per cent on the AED on all slabs of IML was announced in the Budget last year just before the pandemic lockdown. In May, the government had again raised the AED by another 11 per cent, two days after the retail liquor stores (CL2) and State-run MSIL (CL-11C) stores were allowed to sell liquor from May 4 in areas that were outside the containment zones.

The objective behind the steep and unprecedented hike in the AED that had pushed the maximum retail price (MRP) of alcohol was to mop up Rs 2,500 core revenue that was lost during the total shutdown of about 40 days during the first lockdown. After registering a negative growth, the State excise revenue for 2020-'21 has recently gone up marginally in comparison to 2019-'20, largely because of the increased AED. The sale of IML and beer continues to be low in comparison to the previous year.

As on February 8, the excise revenue collection was Rs 19,300 crore, said official sources. "We will be able to reach our revenue target ofRs 22,700 crore for 2020-'21 by March 31," they added.

Between April 2020 and January 2021, the excise revenue had registered a gain of 3.38 per cent in comparison to the corresponding period in the last fiscal when the revenue target was kept at Rs 20,950 crore.

Excise revenue up marginally: Minister

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

STATE Excise revenue for the current financial year has increased marginally, and the department is confident of reaching its revenue target of Rs 22,700 crore for 2020-21.

Excise Minister K Gopalaiah on Tuesday told reporters that of the Rs 22,700-crore target, the department collected Rs 19,433.76 crore revenue up to February 8, which is 85.6 per cent of the total target. It is also Rs 822.66 crore more, compared to the same period in the last financial year, when the department had collected Rs 1,8611.18 crore. However, he said there was some decline in the sales of Indian Made Liquor and beer during the current financial year, compared to last year.

He said that after the Covid-19 outbreak, liquor outlets were shut from March 22, 2020, to May 3, 2020, which had a major impact on revenue. The department took a number of measures to mobilise revenue, and at the same time, to check anti-social elements from taking advantage of the situation, he said.

Gopalaiah said that from July 2020 to December 2020, officials conducted 37,950 raids and registered 19,406 cases for violation of the Excise Act. As many as 175 cases were also registered under the NDPS Act. The department has also decided to provide weapons to officers of the rank of Excise Sub-Inspector and above, and also provide 350 two-wheelers to Excise Sub-Inspectors.

Deputy Chief Minister C N Ashwath Narayan inaugurates the office of the Karnataka Digital Economy Mission in Bengaluru on Tuesday | EXPRESS

DyCM: Digi economy to contribute 30% to GSDP

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

The Karnataka Digital Economy Mission (KDEM) aims to increase contribution of the digital economy to the GSDP (Gross State Domestic Product) to 30 per cent, with the State government a minor partner in the initiative, and industry associations holding a majority stake.

Inaugurating the office of the Karnataka Digital Economy Mission on Tuesday, Deputy Chief Minister and IT-BT Minister Dr CN Ashwath Narayan said, "The government wants KDEM to be more industry-friendly, and keeping this in mind, it has allowed for 51 per cent stake for industry associations, while retaining a minority holding of 49 per cent. The government wants to act as a facilitator rather than an authority."

The event also saw the report 'Beyond Bengaluru' being launched. DyCM Narayan, who also holds the Electronics and Science & Technology portfolio, said the government will focus on improving connectivity even to remote parts, provide 24/7 electricity and reduce the rural-urban divide by establishing the much-needed infrastructure to boost the sector.

KDEM aims to attract investment for the IT/ITeS sector, and create 10 lakh jobs by 2025. It hopes to achieve the target by focusing on five verticals of IT products and services, Innovation & Startups, Electronic System Design & Manufacturing, Beyond Bengaluru and Talent Accelerator, Narayan said, adding that KDEM will help the State reach its goal of $150 billion in IT exports and also become a $300-billion economy by 2025.

TROLL CALL

Threats only strengthen our resolve: Priyank

ENS @Kalaburagi

CHITTAPUR MLA Priyank Kharge, who is the son of Rajya Sabha member Mallikarjun Kharge, has affirmed that neither he nor his father were intimidated by the threat call that Mallikarjun Kharge received on his mobile phone recently.

In a WhatsApp message, Priyank, who is also KPCC spokesperson, said that no one can stop them from speaking the truth. "We firmly believe in the ideologies of Buddha, Basavanna & Babasaheb. We will always stand up for the constitution & no one can intimidate us," he said in the message. He added that such threats will only strengthen their resolve.

Meanwhile, the president of Kalaburagi district unit of Congress Committee, Jagadev Guttedar, has demanded the Centre to trace the person behind the threat call and bring him to book. In a press note released here on Tuesday, Guttedar said that earlier too, Mallikarjun Kharge has received threat calls, for which police complaints were lodged. The failure of the government to arrest the miscreants shows the weakness of the Home Minister, as well as of the Prime Minister, he observed.

If such miscreants were allowed to play their game, there is danger to the democratic system of the country, Guttedar felt.

FUELLING AN AGITATION

Siddu pulls out Ahinda card, but may not be able to encash it

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @Bengaluru

FORMER Chief Minister and Opposition Leader Siddaramaiah is getting ready to hold Ahinda (Kannada acronym for minorities, backward classes and Dalits) conventions in four regions across the state, after next month's budget session. With this, Siddaramiah is hoping to repeat the magic of 2013.

Despite being the tallest leader of the Kurubas, Siddaramaiah skipped Sunday's community convention in Bengaluru, organised by RDPR Minister KS Eshwarappa and other leaders, demanding ST category for the community. In a counter of sorts, he is ready to once again use his Ahinda card that helped him become chief minister.

Sources close to Siddaramaiah told TNIE that he will be holding conventions in Bengaluru, Mysuru, Kalaburagi and Belagavi. "Siddaramaiah had organised similar Ahinda conventions prior to the 2013 elections. This convention won't be limited to demanding reservation for Kurubas, but also other backward classes, including Idigas, Thigalas and Upparas. He will be demanding reservation based on their population. The dates are yet to be finalised, and he will discuss it with the party high command and proceed," sources said. Siddaramaiah, who skipped the Kuruba convention, wants to take other backward classes into confidence.

Senior Congress leader BL Shankar said mobilising traditional voters will help strengthen the party, as these people are facing issues due to lockdown, GST, demonetisation and other factors. "There are attempts to divide them by demanding reservation for a particular caste. By holding such conventions, one will get to know their issues. As on date, it has not been discussed in the party, but Siddaramaiah will proceed, taking party leaders into confidence," he added.

In 2005, Siddaramaiah, then a senior JDS leader, had held Ahinda conventions and was expelled from the JDS. He joined the Congress in 2006. Siddaramaiah calls himself a backward classes leader and represents the Kuruba community, one of the largest castes in Karnataka after Lingayats and Vokkaligas. Soon after he became chief minister in 2013, he announced a number of Bhagya schemes or welfare programmes for the backward classes. However, the Ahinda card did not help him get votes in the 2018 Assembly elections.

"Things have changed. The BJP is looking at backward classes as a consolidated Hindu vote, and dividing Hindu votes might boomerang on Siddaramaiah, if he lays too much stress on Ahinda," said a political analyst.

CONG OBJECTS, BUT HORATTI IS CHAIRMAN

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

JDS MLC Basavaraj Horatti was on Tuesday elected chairman of the 75-member Upper House of the Karnataka legislature. The election lasted minutes, with Congress candidate MLC Naseer Ahmed pulling out at the last minute as he did not have the numbers.

When Deputy Chairman M K Pranesh called for an election, Congress members protested loudly. MLCs M Narayanswamy, B K Hariprasad and Naseer Ahmed claimed that the House was not in order and the election should not be allowed. They also rushed into the well of the House to object to the passing of the Anti-Cow Slaughter Bill without division. But the chair overruled their objection, and said the election was listed on the agenda.

As the Congress kept up loud protestations, K V Narayana Swamy proposed the candidature of Horatti for chairman, while K T Srikante Gowda approved it. N Appaji Gowda was the second proposer, and K A Thippe Swamy approved it. Horatti was escorted to the Chairman's seat, as Pranesh and BJP House leader K Srinivas Poojary welcomed him.

Later, Home and Parliamentary Affairs Minister Basavaraj Bommai lauded Horatti.

Congress candidate Naseer Ahmed's name was proposed by M Narayanswamy and approved by R Prasanna Kumar, while Hariprasad seconded his candidature and Aravind Kumar Arali approved it.

'Council has become refuge of those who lost elections'

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

"THE quality of debate in the Upper House has steadily declined. There was a time when it had achievers from different fields, like art, literature and culture. Writer Gorur Ramaswami Iyengar, singer Gangubai Hangal, journalist Kadri Shamanna, lyricist Doddarange Gowda, poet Akbar Ali and many others were members. But now, it feels that the House has turned into a refuge for those who lost elections," said JDS MLC Basavraj Horatti, who was elected unopposed as the Council Chairman on Tuesday.

He told TNIE, "My aim is to restore the dignity of the House that was compromised after the December 15 incident. I will seek the advice of my seniors and talk to all concerned."

On December 15, Deputy Chairman Dharme Gowda was pulled down from the chairman's chair, while chairman Prathap Chandra Shetty was not allowed to come out of his chambers, leading to unprecedented chaos on the floor of the House.

Asked about his most memorable moment in the Council, which he has served for the last 41 years, Horatti said that in 1980 as a new member of the House, he delivered a speech on aided and unaided institutions and the then chief minister R Gundu Rao had acted immediately. "That was the most memorable 4o minutes of my life," he said.

Known for his frugality, Horatti has occupied the same room at the Legislator's Home for the last four decades and holds the record for being the longest occupant of any quarter at LH. He did not surrender the room even when he became a minister and continued to pay a rent of Rs 10,000 for two years.

Horatti said, "I'm a teacher and started my career at Lamington School in Hubli. I am happy that around 100 teachers, who are my personal friends, were present when I took charge."

He said, "I have been the longest-serving MLC from the Western Teacher's constituency. I have seen and personally known at least 16 chief ministers and worked with around 2,000 legislators."

In parting, he said that the then chief minister Ramakrishna Hegde once saw his casual attire and gifted him six pairs of kurtas and pyjamas.

Chief Minister BS Yediyurappa inaugurates Valmiki Jatra-3 event in Davanagere on Tuesday. Swamy of the Valmiki gurupeet Prasannanda Swamiji was present too

'Cabinet panel looking at Nagmohan Das report'

Davangere: Social Welfare Minister B Sriramulu on Wednesday announced that the increased reservation of 7.5 per cent for the Valmiki Nayaka community will be announced by the CM soon. Addressing the Valmiki Jatra 3 programme at Rajanahalli, he said the report submitted by Justice Nagmohan Das Commission is under perusal of the cabinet sub-committee, which is to submit its report shortly. Based on it, the reservation will be increased. Meanwhile, KPCC working president Satish Jarkiholi said that, BJP is in power both at the state and the Centre, hence the reservation percentage should be increased and ratified in both the houses of the state legislature. ENS

CM promises hike in ST quota at Valmiki Jatre

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Davangere

CHIEF MINISTER B S Yediyurappa on Tuesday assured the Valmiki Nayaka community of increasing the ST quota at the earliest. Addressing the Valmiki Jatre in Rajanahalli village, attended by community leaders Water Resources Minister Ramesh Jarkiholi and Social Welfare Minister B Sriramulu, he said that once the cabinet sub-committee submits the report, he will take an appropriate decision.

The community has been demanding a hike in reservation from 3.5% to 7.5%. It was the coalition government led by former chief minister H D Kumaraswamy that appointed the Justice Nagamohan Das Commission to look into the matter. The commission submitted a report to Yediyurappa.

The CM said that the commission's report was before the cabinet sub-committee, which would peruse it and give its opinion. This will be first discussed in the cabinet, he said.

When Valmiki Gurupeet's Prasannananda Swamy said that he would fast unto death if the CM failed to fulfil his promise, Yediyurappa assured him that his government would make a sincere effort to fulfil their demand. The seer said he was satisfied with the CM's assurance.

The CM announced that grants of Rs 10.8 crore would be released shortly. He said that ₹5.4 crore had been handed over to the mutt for developmental activities.

Showing his commitment for the development of the Nayaka community, the CM said that sufficient funds had been provided to the Valmiki Development Corporation even during the pandemic.

A surveyor in the Anekal taluk office, Rathnakumar KL, was arrested by ACB sleuths, when he was receiving a bribe of Rs 25,000. An ACB official said a resident of Sonnanayakanapura village of Kasaba in Anekal taluk had applied for Tatkal Podi (quicker demarcation and fixing of boundaries). The work was allotted to Rathnakumar, who allegedly demanded a bribe.

180 Correct Dimensional reports being readied in factory for sites not even ready: Commissioner

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

MLA S R Vishwanath and BDA Commissioner H R Mahadev | MEGHANA SASTRY

THE cold war between Bengaluru Development Authority (BDA) Chairman S R Vishwanath, who is also Yelahanka MLA, and Commissioner H R Mahadev was out in the open with allegations and counter-allegations swirling about in consecutive media briefings held at the BDA head office on Tuesday.

Mahadev dropped a bombshell, saying of at least 180 Correct Dimensional (CD) reports (which give all details including dimensions of a specific plot) were being readied in a factory when sites are not even ready, which would be exposed shortly.

In a hurriedly-convened press meet, Vishwanath hurled many charges against the Commissioner, including lack of respect shown to him (Chairman) when he called on the Commissioner, allotment of alternative land to Bhavani Housing Society despite him asking it not to be done, bulk allotment of sites in Hosakerahalli and Binny Mills Society and non-cooperation in handing over corruption-related cases to a Special Investigations Team (SIT) to be formed by the State Government.

Mahadev said, "The Chairman has no executive powers, while the Commissioner is responsible for BDA functioning. I cannot be asked to handover all BDA files as it is my responsibility."

He said, "In the last six months, we have taken many cases to logical conclusion with show-cause notices issued to BDA officers and suspending many. Over the next six months, I will be able to recover between Rs 2,000 crore and Rs 3,000 crore of BDA properties. My crackdown on corruption is not going down well with many."

On Bhavani Society charge, he said, "It is just to handover alternate sites to people whose land was taken over. They have approached the court and the court has directed us to do so. The Transfer of Developmental Rights has not been completed nor have the sites been finalised yet."

On delay in handing over cases to SIT, he said that the ACB is probing cases of corner sites. "Why should we hand it over to SIT now? I want to take all the cases to their logical end," he stressed.

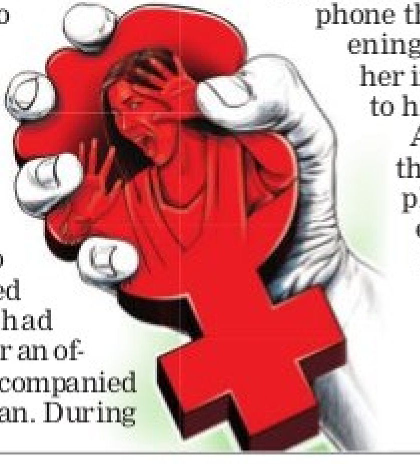
WOMAN ACCUSES D.I.G. OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru



AN IPS officer of the rank of Deputy Inspector General of Police (DIG) is in the dock as a woman has accused him of sexual harassment. It is learnt that the Home Department had received the complaint in December.

Sources in the Home Department said that the woman, an employee of a well-known transport and logistics firm, had filed a complaint accusing the officer of sexually harassing her.

"According to her complaint, the DIG was serving as police commissioner of a city, when the incident took place. The woman, who is also associated with an NGO, had met the officer for an official purpose, accompanied by another woman. During the visit, the officer had taken her mobile phone number," a source said.

The DIG allegedly contacted the woman over the phone at around 11pm and asked her to come to his house. When the woman went there, according to her complaint, the DIG allegedly expressed interest in having a relationship with her. However, the woman, who reportedly told him that she was married, left the place immediately, the source said, adding that the officer had allegedly sent several vulgar messages to the woman's phone the same night, threatening to file a case against her if she did not pay heed to his demand.

A senior official said that the woman's complaint was acknowledged by the Home Department, which is yet to initiate an inquiry into the allegation or action against the officer in question.

BMTC drivers to protest if full wages not paid

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

MEMBERS of the BMTC drivers union on Tuesday said they will hold a protest and stop services if their demands are not met. Union president Chandrashekar said the government should pay all drivers and conductors full salaries, and that they have been paid only half salary since December. Even February salary is likely to be half, he said.

They said a memorandum will be given to the government on Wednesday, after which they will wait for 45 days for their demands to be met. "If they are not met, we will stage a protest," he said.

Reacting to the rising rage among unions, Deputy CM and Transport Minister Laxman Savadi said a proposal has been sent to the finance department. He is said to have been given an assurance that in two days, wages of all drivers and conductors will be cleared.

Rajagopalnagar police on Tuesday opened fire at a 22-year-old rowdy sheeter in GKW Layout. He has been identified as Santosh alias Illikutti, who was one of the accused in the murder of local BSP leader Sreenivas alias Seena. Santosh was involved in 10 cases.

A Koo in cyberspace! Desi micro-blogging app sees surge in downloads

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

IN a massive response to Twitter not complying with the Union Government order to block 257 accounts tweeting about "farmer genocide", desi app from Bengaluru, Koo, India's own micro-blogging platform, has been seeing a big surge in downloads.

Not only key organisations, including the Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology (MEITY), but Union ministers and prominent personalities too have opened accounts on Koo.

Piyush Goyal, Minister of Railways and Commerce & Industry, tweeted, "I am now on Koo. Connect with me on this Indian micro-blogging platform for real-time, exciting and exclusive updates. Let us exchange our thoughts and ideas on Koo."

NITI Aayog tweeted: ""NITIAayog is excited to be a part of the #KooApp, a winner in the social category of the #AatmanirbharBharat App Innovation Challenge! Listen to interesting thoughts by nitiaayog on the app..."

The app has been collecting accolades from all quarters in its 10-month-long journey. It was named Google PlayStore's 'Best Daily Essential App for 2020' and got a special mention by Prime Minister Narendra Modi in his Mann Ki Baat address.

Aprameya Radhakrishna, Koo Co-Founder and CEO and hailing from Bengaluru, said, "We believe it is important to build social networks keeping in mind local cultural nuances. Koo being deeply focussed on India will help ensure a consistent experience for all users on the platform. We are humbled and at the same time excited by the adoption and encouragement by so many noteworthy personalities and recently the entry of the topmost government offices of the country on to Koo."

It was founded in March 2020 as an inclusive micro-blogging platform in Indian languages where people from across regions can express themselves in their mother tongue. The app is available in multiple languages, including Kannada, Hindi, Telugu, and Bengali, while other Indian languages are being added soon. "In India, only 10 per cent speak English, while 90 per cent prefer local languages. There's no place on the internet for them to express themselves in their native language and discover others from the same community. Koo provides a voice to Indians who prefer Indian languages," say app developers.

So far, Koo has verified the handles of MEITY, MyGov, Digital India, India Post, National Informatics Centre (NIC), National Institute of Electronics and Information Technology (NIELIT), Common Services Center, UMANG app and Digi Locker among others.

Y S Sharmila, daughter of former Chief Minister Y S Rajasekhara Reddy, greets her supporters in front of her residence in Hyderabad on Tuesday

Sharmila enters TS with Rajanna Rajyam goal

Says she will announce her future plans only after holding talks with followers

VV BALAKRISHNA @Hyderabad

ANDHRA PRADESH Chief Minister Y S Jagan Mohan Reddy's sister YS Sharmila, who announced her intentions to restore Rajanna Rajyam, appears set on changing the patterns in the political kaleidoscope in Telangana.

Sharmila, who made a sudden political entry in Telangana on Tuesday, held her first meeting with the leaders of erstwhile Nalgonda district and elicited their opinion on the way forward for reaching her objective.

For the record, the late Y S Rajasekhara Reddy's daughter said that she was holding meetings only to get a grasp of "ground realities" and felt satisfied that the response was quite encouraging. "Those whom I met today were very enthusiastic. It is possible to restore Rajanna Rajyam in Telangana," she said.

Sharmila, however, said that she would announce her future plans only after holding discussions with followers of all districts. During the meeting, Sharmila is quoted as having said: "You are the ones with ground-level knowledge. You know things better. Please provide feedback," she told her followers.

During a brief interaction with mediapersons later, Sharmila asked whether YS Rajasekhara Reddy's schemes like Aarogyasri, houses for the poor and fee reimbursement for students were being implemented in the State. "Are people getting Aarogyasri benefits," she asked.

Asked about her brother's approval for her political plans, Sharmila said: "Jagan Mohan Reddy is doing his job in AP. He is my elder brother and I hope he blesses me. I will do my work in Telangana."

The ruling TRS leadership meanwhile maintained a cryptic silence on the development. TRS supporters, who were critical of Sharmila in the morning, on social media, removed all their posts by evening.

YSRC KEEPS AWAY

Vijayawada: The YSRC on Tuesday distanced itself from YS Sharmila's announcement that she could float a party in the neighbouring State of Telangana, making it crystal clear that if she did so, it would be her individual decision. Addressing a press conference, YSRC general secretary Sajjala Ramakrishna Reddy revealed that the party chief and the CM was against expanding the party in Telangana. ENS

Will take legal route to help Sasi contest polls: TTV

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Chennai

AFTER a 23-hour-long journey from Bengaluru, VK Sasikala reached Chennai on Tuesday morning, after having met and interacted with scores of her loyalists en route. Before heading to her T Nagar residence, the one-time confidante of former chief minister J Jayalalithaa stopped at Ramavaram Gardens to pay floral tributes to former chief minister and AIADMK founder MG Ramachandran. Later in the day, the Madras High Court served a notice to an AMMK functionary, based on a petition moved by MGR's foster children alleging that he had installed structures at Ramavaram Gardens without their consent, and had threatened them not to remove the structures.

Addressing the media, Sasikala's nephew TTV Dhinakaran said they were seeking legal remedies to see if Sasikala can contest in the upcoming Assembly elections. "I am a positive thinker, and I would like to believe that she will be able to contest this time," he said. "Now that she has returned from prison, we will also proceed with the case pending at the Madras High Court over her removal as the AIADMK general secretary." Dhinakaran then appealed to the cadre of Amma to work unitedly. "If anybody wants to interpret that differently, that is up to them. Sasikala would visit the Jayalalithaa memorial whenever the government throws it open for the public," Dhinakaran said.

V K Sasikala gets a rousing welcome by party members outside MGR's residence Ramavaram, in Chennai on Tuesday | SRI LOGANATHAN V

When asked whether he would contest from RK Nagar again, Dhinakaran said, "Definitely. I will contest from two constituencies – RK Nagar and also from a constituency in the district where I served as an MP for a long time."

The AMMK leader also underscored that the primary objective of launching the AMMK was to "redeem the AIADMK and form the true Amma government in Tamil Nadu." To a question as to whether any MP, MLA or AIADMK office-bearers enquired about Sasikala's health, Dhinakaran said, "Actor Rajinikanth called me on Monday and enquired about her health. I don't want to reveal the names of others who called."

Referring to DMK President MK Stalin's promise to constitute a fresh commission of inquiry to investigate Jayalalithaa's death, he said, "It is like a wolf trying to help the sheep. The DMK president raises this issue during every election."

RO-RO service comes to a halt

S LALITHA @Bengaluru

THE first Roll-on Roll-Off (RO-RO) service of the South Western Railway Zone — the dream project of the late Suresh Angadi — that carried trucks on its open wagons, has come to a halt in the last five months. The reason — lack of financial viability of the service.

The maiden trip from Nelamangala in Bengaluru Rural to Bale in Solapur district of Maharashtra was flagged off jointly on August 30, 2020, by Angadi and Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa. However, it returned midway after completing just 13 km of the proposed 682 km. The run was repeated on September 1 and was successfully completed with 28 drivers on board the 26 trucks secured with steel chains onto the rakes. RO-RO's return trip from Bale began on September 6 with 15 trucks on it and it reached Nelamangala the next day. However, the first round trip was to be its last too.

The service was a challenge from the beginning as Konkan Railways was the only one in the country to operate such a service successfully. The Bengaluru Division leased these rakes from them.

Jitendra Infrastructure and Reality, the company tasked with aggregating trucks for every trip, had an onerous task before the launch as it had to build ramps and roads in front of the originating and terminating stations to facilitate the passage of trucks to the trains.

Asked about the reasons for this venture being grounded, Yogendra Sharma, Railway Consultant, who prepared the detailed project report for RO-RO, told TNIE, "The Railways failed to recognise RO-RO as a special kind of commodity service. The rates fixed by the Railway Board were similar to that it charged for commodities like coal and this ended up being costly for transporters as compared to transportation by road. Companies were not coming forward to avail this service by paying more."

"The freight rates for rail were fixed at Rs 1,350 per tonne. This worked out to Rs 2 per tonne per km. The road rates came to Rs 1.28 per tonne per km. Konkan Railway only charges Rs 1.10 per km. I had clearly recommended that the rates had to be competitive with road charges to make it a success," he added.

Another flaw is that Railways charges on a full-truck basis which means that a customer with just 17 or 18 tonnes in a truck ends up paying for 30 tonnes, the expert added.

Senior Divisional Commercial Manager, Bengaluru Division, N R Krishna Reddy said, "The RO-RO service has been temporarily put on hold due to financial issues. We have requested the Railway Board to modify the prices so that it proves viable for all concerned. The issue is being regularly discussed and even last week we spoke about it. We will work out a solution soon to restart the service."

CRIME PATROL

NIGERIAN DRUG PEDDLER HELD

Bengaluru: The Central Crime Branch (CCB) sleuths have arrested a Nigerian drug peddler and have seized ecstasy tablets from him. The accused Ifeanyi Ohechulwu Mike (41), was residing in Maragondanahalli. Police said based on information that a foreigner was selling some drugs to people in Ramamurthynagar, a police team rushed to the spot and arrested Mike, who was found in possession of Ecstasy tablets. "We have seized 100 grams of ecstasy tablets and a car, total worth about Rs 10 lakh, from the accused. A case is registered in Ramamurthy Nagar police station in this regard," the police added. ENS

COLLEGE STUDENT ENDS LIFE ON CAMPUS

Bengaluru: A 22-year-old student of a private college ended his life on the premises of a college in Ramanagara on Monday. His father, however, has pointed at foul play in a statement before the police. The deceased, Venkat Chaitanya Reddy, hailed from Andhra Pradesh. He was in the final year of B.Sc. The incident took place in the afternoon. Reddy went into a washroom and hanged himself. Other students who noticed the body alerted the college management and Chennapatna police, who shifted the body for postmortem. No suicide note has been found, which prompted Srinivas Reddy, Venkat's father, to doubt if his son had committed suicide, or is there any foul play. ENS

'ATM VAN DRIVER ELOPED WITH LOVER'

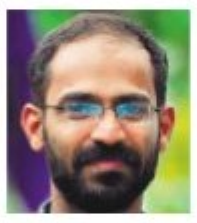
Bengaluru: Yogesh R, the ATM van driver who only a week ago fled with Rs 64 lakh cash belonging to the cash management company where he worked, is said to have eloped with his lover soon after. Subramanyanagar police found that he was in love with a relative and had planned the robbery in advance. Both switched off their phones and left for North India. Efforts are on to track them, police said. Yogesh had separated from his wife. He eloped with his lover since his family was against their relationship. Police came to know that the girl had also left the same day as him, and had not returned. A police team has departed for Uttar Pradesh in search of the accused. ENS

ED files chargesheet against Kappan for money laundering

TOBY ANTONY @ Kochi

THE Enforcement Directorate has filed a chargesheet against Campus Front of India (CFI) leader Rauf Sherif, Keralite journalist Sidhique Kappan and three others at a Special Court for Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) cases in Lucknow. In the chargesheet, ED claimed that Rauf and other Popular Front of India (PFI) and CFI members raised funds overseas and allegedly used them for anti-CAA protests and Delhi riots. The chargesheet named Athikur Rahman, Masud Alam and Mohammad Alam, besides Rauf and Kappan.

The agency is probing the money laundering aspect in the case registered by the Uttar Pradesh police against Kappan and three others for the alleged attempt to disrupt social and communal harmony after the Hathras gang-rape incident. The ED had arrested Rauf last December from the Thiruvananthapuram airport while Kappan was arrested by the UP police en route to Hathras from Delhi in October.



Sidhique Kappan

The chargesheet stated that Rauf, a native of Anchal, was involved in criminal conspiracy, along with PFI and CFI members settled overseas, to fraudulently remit funds raised through bogus transactions to acquire the proceeds of crime.

The chargesheet also said that Athikur, Masud, Kappan and Alam were travelling to Hathras to utilise the proceeds of crime and that they have committed offences of money laundering.

Interestingly, the ED finding is that the ₹5,000 transferred to the account of Athikur's account by Ahamed Shibili, an associate of Rauf, is part of the proceeds of crime.

"Though Rauf was remanded by the PMLA court in Ernakulam, we decided to file the chargesheet at the Lucknow court as the incident related to the case took place in Uttar Pradesh. It was filed on Saturday," an ED official said.

Kerala polls: Rahul will start roadshow on Feb 23

CYNTHIA CHANDRAN @ T'Puram

CONGRESS leader and Wayanad MP Rahul Gandhi will kickstart the UDF's poll campaigning in the state capital on February 23, coinciding with the culmination of the Aishwarya Kerala Yatra.

Though the yatra, led by Opposition Leader Ramesh Chennithala, was scheduled to conclude on February 22, it has been extended by a day because of Rahul's inconvenience.

During the event, Rahul will also launch the Nyuntam Aay Yojana (NYAY) scheme, which was proposed during the 2019 Lok Sabha elections.

Rahul is also expected to hold a roadshow from Kasaragod to Thiruvananthapuram after the poll dates are announced.

"In all likelihood, Rahul Gandhi is expected to hold a roadshow in his car on the lines of his Tamil Nadu event. Priyanka Gandhi will also be a star campaigner," KPCC general secretary K P Anil Kumar told TNIE.

LET'S HONOUR LOST LIVES IN U'KHAND BY LEARNING FROM OUR MISTAKES

We do not go there much, we who debate its pros and cons as if it were something theoretical—a design game for an engineering student. We tend to watch it on our TV screens. The Himalayas are not a theoretical entity. They are a living system, grand beyond words, civilisationally precious, also young, volatile, precarious. Have we acquired a kind of fatal liking for the macabre? Has the Covid-19 pandemic turned us into masochists with a death wish? Remember the early weeks of the lockdown, when skies cleared, birds reappeared, and nature made its presence felt after aeons in our megalopolises, in wondrous scenes? Those with a deeper canvas had then seen the signs: a lull in the ongoing human-nature 'conflict'. Now our TV screen is playing another disaster movie: something local, but also very global. Scenes that could not have been starker as a metaphor. This unfolded up in the precincts of the craggy, beautiful Nanda Devi. A whole snow- and ice-bearing rock slope snapped somewhere above the Rishiganga, one of the pristine early tributaries in the intricate hydrological system that finally births the Ganga. And an angry, mobile mass of snow, ice, water and rock debris came crashing downriver, into the Dhauliganga, and thence right into two hydel projects! Nature, with no ambiguity at all, was letting its fury loose on artefacts of human torture.

How much simpler could it be, the moral of the story? It's not just our technocratic ego—which scythes through delicate mountain systems with tunnelling machines and dynamites so as to turn our age-old waters into electricity. India, through its history, has survived as a civilisation precisely because pilgrimages were acts of respect—not 24/7 'Char Dham' tourism packages bought on the cheap. Let's honour the lives that were lost by learning our lessons. Up in the Himalayas, down here in the Western Ghats, in our forests.

THE STANDOFF BETWEEN RBI AND BOND MARKET

The pricing tussle between the RBI and bond traders is becoming commonplace despite Governor Shaktikanta Das's repeated reminders about bond yields being a public good. Just last Friday, the government yet again failed to sell its five-year and the marquee rate-setting 10-year securities as traders sought a higher rate and the RBI refused the same. This has been pretty much the trend since late last year when the 10-year yield stood above 6.15%. Das was miffed and publicly asked traders to be 'competitive without being combative'. As buyers stayed away from the bond sale, the RBI intervened, absorbing as much as ₹3 lakh crore via its regular open market operations and an unusual 'Operation Twist'. Subsequently, yields dropped below the psychological 6% mark, resulting in the lowest government borrowing cost in 15 years.

Low bond yields benefit borrowers, but this also hurts savers. Banks and financial institutions too must settle for lower returns and take a bigger hit on their books. But in the collective interest of the financial markets, the RBI anchors bond yields from time to time even though there's no benchmark yield curve. Das is justified in finding a cheaper rate for the government, but bond markets too are within their rights, seeking higher price considering the oversupply of sovereign bonds not just this fiscal but even next.

Given FY22's massive borrowing plan, will the RBI let the yields fly or allow market forces to do their job? The net supply of dated G-Secs and State Development Loans is pegged at a massive ₹16.5 lakh crore in FY22. If markets can't salivate, the RBI's interventions can't be ruled out. Amid better growth prospects, lower liquidity surplus and an expansionary fiscal policy, traders anticipate a yield repricing. Currently, bond yields are suppressed largely due to the RBI's interventions, without factoring inflation risks. With growth prioritised over inflation, policy rates and market yields clearly are out of bounds and it's paramount that the standoff between the bond market and RBI doesn't end up in a violent combat.

While we have reason to be optimistic that Covid will continue to decline in India, we shouldn't be beguiled into the belief that nationwide herd immunity has already arrived

ANTIBODY SURVEYS DO NOT SIGNAL END OF PANDEMIC

AMIT BANDRE

DR K SRINATH REDDY

Cardiologist, epidemiologist and President, Public Health Foundation of India (PHFI)

Since July 2020, there have been predictions of imminent herd immunity ending the Covid-19 epidemic in India. After cases and daily death counts declined from September, it appeared that India was ready to see the pandemic fade away. Scattered serological surveys of high exposure zones in some cities were cited as proof of galloping herd immunity, even though reports from the Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR) national survey, conducted in August-September 2020, revealed a prevalence of only 7.1% in August 2020.

I have consistently maintained, even after the decline from September, that India had not reached herd immunity. Data from the latest national antibody survey released by the ICMR on 4 February 2021 bear this out. This survey, conducted from 17 December 2020 to 8 January 2021 in 70 districts from 21 states, revealed a seroprevalence of 21.4% among adults and 25.3% among children. This is not close to a herd immunity threshold.

The ICMR survey reported seroprevalence of 31.7% in urban slums, 26.2% in non-slum urban population and 19.1% in the rural sample. A separate citywide survey in Delhi, conducted from January 15 to 23, reported an antibody prevalence of 56.3%. A study in Karnataka (June-August 2020) reported a statewide prevalence of 46.7%, while another survey conducted in September 2020 showed a prevalence of 27.3%. Based on all surveys thus far, there is no region in the country that can be deemed to have attained herd immunity, though some urban pockets may have crossed a 60% positivity rate by now.

It is not correct to characterise India as a homogenous country that simultaneously attains herd immunity all across its vast geography and huge population. There are differences between urban and rural areas, slums and non-slums, well developed districts and less developed districts, which lead to different levels of exposure to the virus. Southern and western Indian states, for example, are better developed than eastern and central Indian states. These differences were also reflected in the Covid-19 infection rates.

States and districts that have more airports, regularly record more international and domestic flights, have more rail services, better roads and road transport are also those where the higher crowd density of advanced urbanisation and increased population mobility of economic development offered the virus a greater opportunity to spread. Less developed regions of the country have had lower levels of viral exposure.

Virus transmission is slower in rural areas because of several reasons. The crowd density is less. Houses are mostly well ventilated. People work in open farms. Airflow is unimpeded by high-rise buildings. People commute less within and out of the village. Comorbidities are also lower than in urban areas, with less risk of serious disease that transmits more. While non-specific immunity may be higher in rural areas because of greater past exposure to infectious diseases, this is speculative. Diets in rural areas are possibly more conducive to immunity-promoting gut bacteria (microbiome) than urban diets that are high in ultra-processed foods.

We do not know the herd immunity threshold of this virus. The experience of Manaus in Brazil reveals that even a seropositivity rate of 76% had not conferred herd immunity and the epidemic is still raging there. Non-immune persons, residing in areas where a large number have become immune, may remain protected only as long they remain within that community; they would be vulnerable if they travel to another area with ongoing transmission and a large cordon of immune persons is unavailable to block the virus.

Why is India seeing a steady decline in cases and deaths? It is possible that the transmission slowed in urban areas due to adoption of masks, physical distancing, school closures and more people working from home. The spread in rural areas is slow due to lower crowd density, less mobility and better ventilation. Around 90% of India's workforce is in the informal or unorganised sector. Many of them do not work in closed spaces. Infections in outdoor environments carry lower viral loads, explaining the large number of asymptomatic persons detected on serosurveillance.

The younger age of the population makes for less severe disease among infected persons. Only 6% of India's population is above 65 years of age, while Italy (23%), Spain (20%) and the US (16%) have much older populations. Indonesia, also at 6% in this age range, has lower deaths per million than us.

Interestingly, we have not seen super-spreader effects of large gatherings in the past three months. By Deepavali, transmission appears to have slowed down since many susceptible persons among the exposed were already infected and Covid-appropriate behaviours became more commonly practiced, protecting other susceptible persons. Events like farmers' gatherings and Kumbh Mela are natural experiments that need to be studied to understand the altered transmission dynamics of the virus. We do not have a full explanation for all the trends. We have reason to be optimistic that the pandemic will continue to decline in India and herd immunity will eventually result from a combination of natural infection and immunisation. But we should not be beguiled into the belief that countrywide herd immunity has already arrived and let our guard down.

CHINA'S EYES ON QUAD: WHAT DOES IT MEAN FOR MEMBERS?

VAIBHAVI PINGALE

Assistant Professor of Economics, Savitribai Phule Pune University

KUNAL TILAK

Founder of TTC Media Pvt Ltd

The Quadrilateral Security Dialogue (Quad) of four countries, Japan, the US, Australia and India, was formed in 2007 with the initiative coming from Japanese PM Shinzo Abe. Due to a lack of participation and no proper institutional framework, it remained dormant for quite some time.

By realising the threat China's expansionist policy is causing, in November 2017, India, the US, Australia and Japan developed a new strategy to keep the critical sea routes in the Indo-Pacific free of any influence, especially Beijing's. The aim of the Quad is to support a "free, open and prosperous" Indo-Pacific region that China seeks to threaten.

In November 2020, the Quad conducted Malabar Naval drills in the Indian Ocean. In response, China affirmed that the activities of the Quad do not affect it; however it is actually keeping a close eye on it. Beijing has emerged as the most important trading partner of the Indian Ocean region, accounting for 16.1% of its total goods trade in 2017, up from 4.8% in 2000.

Quad vs Belt and Road Initiative (BRI): The BRI promises economic security but not human security by providing funds to developing countries with a debt trap. Herein, the Quad can play a vital role as it is a group of democratic countries. It should provide a choice to the nations as to where they want to borrow the money for development purposes from and also be a part of the supply chain.

This looks all positive, but China would definitely react and take some action against this. Therefore, the members should think, plan and prepare for retaliation. A possible way adopted by China to tackle this challenge could be the 'Divide and Rule' policy, which would simply mean creating conflicts among the members and reducing the pace of the activities of the group.

India's Maritime Policy & Quad: India's maritime policy has been dependent on China's plans in the Indian Ocean. The South China Sea has been the dominant shipping route in Asia and harbours huge natural gas resources. Naturally, China has been looking to tap these resources and ensure that it asserts its dominance in the region. Thus, Beijing has invested heavily in the East Indian Ocean region all the way up to Djibouti and Port Sudan.

Examples of this are the Hambantota port and Colombo Port City projects in Sri Lanka. China has acquired the Hambantota port from Sri Lanka in lieu of the debt provided. It made investments worth $1.12 billion in the port. Loans obtained for constructing the port and the money obtained from the lease were used by Sri Lanka to strengthen its foreign reserves, not to repay. Although the port has been leased to China for 99 years, there was no cancellation of debt.

The Colombo Port City Project showed another version where the Chinese public company brought its own labourers to build the port instead of Sri Lankan ones. Further, China started the construction of a deep-water port at Kyaukpyu in Myanmar and leased the island of Feydhoo Finolhu in the Maldives and the Gwadar port in Pakistan.

India needs to develop positive relations with its neighbours that have already been tapped by China. Uncertainty regarding India's policy with Bangladesh and vice versa has left a void that Beijing is filling, and China's investments in Dhaka have increased over the years.

With Saudi Arabia and the UAE shying away from Pakistan, the nation has been largely dependent on Chinese resources to sustain its economy. However, several important projects of the China Pakistan Economic Corridor (CPEC) are now stalled or running behind schedule due to a lack of financing. Of 122 announced CPEC projects, only 32 have been completed as of the third quarter of the fiscal year 2020-21.

The Quad needs to be institutionalised and given a formal structure where India needs to be the aggressor. The advantage that India has when it comes to the Quad is that the other members are geographically cut off from the Indian Ocean region. The only nation with big-enough naval power to rival China in this area is India and thus it can bring peace, stability and security in the region.

China has been facing an internal debt crisis due to the overlending of funds to the BRI and therefore, has been restricting the expenditure the way it did for CPEC in Pakistan. Citing data compiled by Boston University, researchers note that overall lending by the state-backed China Development Bank and the Export Import Bank of China declined from a peak of $75 billion in 2016 to just $4 billion in 2019. Further, experts suggest China would be most likely to adopt a new approach to fund the BRI through multilateral bodies such as the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank to reduce the debt burden.

Similarly, Quad members can benefit from pooling resources, which will benefit India in expanding its scope in the Indo-Pacific without the extra burden of foreign policy spending on the economy. It is up to the members to take proactive steps to come together in these conducive times when China is also reeling under world pressure due to its involvement in the Covid-19 outbreak. A sustained movement to limit China's expansionist policy by the Quad will set a precedent for the European Union as well. Such a precedent will go a long way in undermining China's threats and policies on the international stage.

Lessons from U'khand

This is with reference to Many studies foretelling Chamoli disaster gathered dust (Feb 9). It is regrettable that there was no seriousness in averting such disasters. Glacial lake formation at higher altitudes could have been detected through drones. To avoid such calamities in the future, the Himalayan regions need constant monitoring by a dedicated wing in the administration.

R Sridharan, Chennai

Lightning research centre

It is good news that India's first lightning research centre will be established at Balasore. This is the need of the hour as so many deaths are being caused by lightning in the rainy season. This also reminds us of the Atharva Veda, where there are many hymns about lightning.

Radhakanta Seth, Sambalpur

Right decision over Puri

It is indeed surprising that the National Monuments Authority chairman was unaware of the draft heritage bylaws for the Lord Jagannath temple issued by his organisation (Puri Jagannath rollback a lesson for the future, Feb 9). Better sense has now prevailed and one hopes care is taken in the future.

Cricket a great leveller

The fact that the game of cricket is a great leveller was amply proved at Chennai's Chepauk where an almost full-strength Indian side was outplayed by England after all the heroics in Australia. Again, our spineless batting in the first innings was largely responsible for the loss. Perhaps Kuldeep Yadav should have been picked instead of Shahbaz Nadeem.

Corona in schools

Although these may be isolated cases, the news that over 180 school children and more than 75 teachers from two schools in Kerala have tested positive for Covid shows the need to take corona protocols such as social distancing and face masks seriously. This is a wake-up call for educational institutes across the nation.

Paranoid about vaccines

This is with reference to Only 22% frontline workers turn up for jab (Feb 9). The low turnout in Karnataka is understandable as there appears to be a mist of uncertainty around vaccines. As important as it is to keep the people safe health-wise, it must be made sure that they are not instilled with a newer fear in an attempt to do that.

Azad an exception in Cong

This is with reference to Modi takes dig at Cong while lauding Azad ... (Feb 9). Just because you are in the Opposition, you should not oppose even the good deeds of the government. Ghulam Nabi Azad is an exception in the Congress, for he can understand and accept the reality. We should appreciate the boldness of the former J&K CM, a frank and outspoken politician. I am sure the Congress leader is going to face the wrath of his party's first family for his remarks.

Touching farewell

The farewell speech by the PM about Azad was touching. It is worth noting that Modi appreciated the valuable contributions of the Leader of the Opposition, who deserved the praise.

Corruption no bar

That V K Sasikala, who underwent a jail term for acquiring assets disproportionate to her legitimate income, received a grand welcome shows that corruption is not held by many people as a crime. This reflects the deterioration in the moral fibre of many people in almost every state. In Bihar and Haryana, former CMs have been convicted for corruption, but they and their scions are acclaimed as great leaders even now.

T Hanuman Chowdary, Hyderabad

Lack of guilt too

It is surprising that Sasikala got a grand welcome as if she received a prestigious international award or achieved a great victory in sports. Many seem to have forgotten her illegal actions and she too appeared to have no guilt.

Experts yet to ascertain what caused tragedy

Scientists start collecting samples from disaster site in Uttarakhand

VINEET UPADHYAY @ Raini (Uttarakhand)

SCIENTISTS and experts who inspected the disaster site in Chamoli have said that it is too early to determine the exact cause of the flash floods. So far, 32 bodies have been recovered and 174 are still missing.

Kalachand Sai, director of the Wadia Institute of Himalayan Geology which has sent a team of experts to find out what caused the disaster, said: "At this stage, it is difficult to pin point the exact cause of the flash floods. We are on the ground taking samples and examining everything. Once we analyse everything, then only we can tell what happened."

This team of five scientists from WIHG are in Tapovan, Raini and other locations to collect samples of muck, water and debris. They said that two causes — glacier break and avalanche — cannot be ruled out.

"There can be multiple causes such as an avalanche or glacier break or may be both. We do not see any reason to determine it as a standard Glacial Lake Outburst Flood," said Sai, whose team had reached the locatin on Monday.

Unwilling to conclude what caused this, Sai said: "This region has a very steep gradient. Our observations suggest that the rock mass may have weakened due to freezing and thawing. This sometimes leads to the development of a weak zone and fractures. As the rock mass weakened, the glacier and snow might have come down crashing, and resulting in flash floods," he said. The steep slopes of the mountains in the region further increased the intensity of the crash.

Kalachand Sai, WIHG director

A preliminary finding by the Dehradun-based Indian Institute of Remote Sensing (IIRS), which is part of Indian Space Research Organization (ISRO), is of the opinion that the floods occurred due to landslide and ruled out glacial burst or GLOF (Glacial Lake Outburst Flood).

A scientist from the institute, who did wish to be named, said: "Our preliminary findings indicate that a landslide was triggered at around 5600 meters of altitude. It was a combination of rocks, snow from recent snowfall on February 4, 5 and ice of the glacier. The area of 0.3 square kilometers covered by the landslide which made the first fall of 1.8 kilometers on the steep slope due to which the flash floods occurred."

The website of the IIRS says: "It has been observed from the satellite data of Feb 7, 2021 in catchment of Rishi Ganga river at the terminus of the glacier at an altitude of 5600 meter a landslide triggered a snow avalanche covering approximately 14 sq km area and causing a flash flood in the downstream Rishiganga river. It is estimated that flash flood had generated 2-3 million cubic meter of water in a short span of time."

Meanwhile, scientists from Defence Research and Development Orhanisation and experts from various other institutions across the country have reached the Tapovan area to investigate the cause of the disaster.

Uttarakhand CM Trivendra Singh Rawat visited Lata in Chamoli on Tuesday to meet the residents of the avalanche-hit villages. He had visited Tapovan on Monday evening to review rescue efforts.

MP village quartet among the missing

Bhopal: At least four from Shivpuri district of Madhya Pradesh are among those missing after Sunday's tragedy in Uttarakhand. Bhanu Pratap Sikarwar, Gajendra Pavaiya, Rakesh Lodhi and Sonu Lodhi are all natives of Dhamkan village. Police said they were hired by a metal company. All are aged between 25 and 30.

Yogi sends team of three ministers

Lucknow: To coordinate with authorities in Uttarakhand in carrying out relief and rescue operations and to locate the missing ones from UP, CM Yogi Adityanath has sent a team of three ministers to the calamity site. Another team headed by Additional Chief Secretary (Home) will coordinate with the Uttarakhand administration.

Jharkhand to stand by those affected

Ranchi: The Jharkhand government will provide all help to the people of the state trapped in the disaster, Chief Minister Hemant Soren said. He added that the government's Labour Department has opened a control room. "People trying to know about those trapped in the disaster, contact helpline numbers," he said.

Trapped in tunnel for seven days, he lived to tell the horrific tale

MUKESH RANJAN @ Ranchi

THE traumatic experience of being trapped in a tunnel for days can leave a permamnent scar on the survivor.

Take Salim Ansari for instance. He was left stranded inside the Bagdigi coalmine in Dhanbad, which got flooded due to a wall collapse in 2001. Trapped inside without food and water for seven days, he was eventually rescued. Of the 30 caught inside coalmine, he was the lone survivor. The rest either drowned or were swept away by the water. Ansari could only watch, without being able to help.

The experience left such a mark on him that Ansari never went back inside the mine in his five remaining years of service.

Ansari still appears terrfied when he recalls the days in darkness, fearing death all the time. "All of a sudden an explosion took place and people started shouting and runninge. Before I could understand what was going on, water started gushing into the mine. As I was away from others on a slightly elevated place, I somehow managed to place myself on a mound of coal. But it was painful to see others drown in front of my eyes," Ansari said. "There was no light and I had to spend seven days and nights without food and water sitting in the same place," he added.

Ansari Salim, coalmine flood survivor

Amid complete silence, without a ray of light, Ansari had lost hope. Finding a way out seemed impossible. But he kept himself alive by drinking the water found inside the mine.

"On the eighth day, I heard some noise and saw some light which became brighter gradually. Realising that a rescue team had arrived, I started shouting for help and they took me out," said Ansari. "How I felt after sensing that the rescuers were approaching cannot be described. It gave me life."

Family members said Ansari has not been able to overcome totally and gets disturbed when he hears of similar incidents. "He is reluctant to discuss the incident, as he has not been able to come out of the trauma," said nephew Aftab Ansari.

Going all out in rescue operations: Home Min to Parliament

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

SPEAKING for the first time since the flood tragedy in Uttarakhand, Home Minister Amit Shah has said the centre is extending "all possible assistance" to the state government for relief and rescue work. "A total of 197 people are reported missing which includes 139 of an under-construction project of NTPC, 46 of the functional Rishiganga Project and 12 villagers," Shah said in the Parliament on Tuesday.

Shah said the 13.2 MW Rishiganga hydroelectric project was washed away and the under-construction 520 MW NTPC hydroelectric power project at Tapovan on Dhauliganga river was damaged. "It is observed from satellite data (Planet Lab) of 7th February in the catchment of Rishiganga river at the terminus of the glacier at an altitude of 5600m a landslide triggered a snow avalanche covering approximately 14 sq kms and caused a flash flood in the downstream of Rishiganga river," said the minister's statement.

"Rescue operation to evacuate these people (who are trapped) is going on a war footing and all out efforts are made for searching missing persons," he said.

ITBP has set up a control room in Joshimath and 450 personnel of the force with necessary equipment, eight teams of Indian Army, including one Engineer Task Force (ETF), are carrying out the rescue and relief operations.

Modi has virtual meeting with Afghan President

New Delhi: Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Tuesday held a virtual meeting with Afghanistan President Ashraf Ghani. The leaders said it was important to create a terror-free region, as the two countries signed an MoU for the construction of the Shatoot Dam in Kabul. The MoU for the dam was signed by External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar and his Afghan counterpart Hanif Atmar. The dam is constructed to provide drinking water to Kabul. "The dam would meet the safe drinking water needs, provide irrigation water to nearby areas, rehabilitate the irrigation and drainage network," the MEA said.

Cops told to check CCTV to curb child drug abuse

SUMI SUKANYA DUTTA @ New Delhi

INDIA'S apex child rights' body and the Narcotics Control Bureau have asked cops in every police station to carry out random checking of CCTV Cameras installed around schools and educational institutions to check drug and substance abuse by kids.

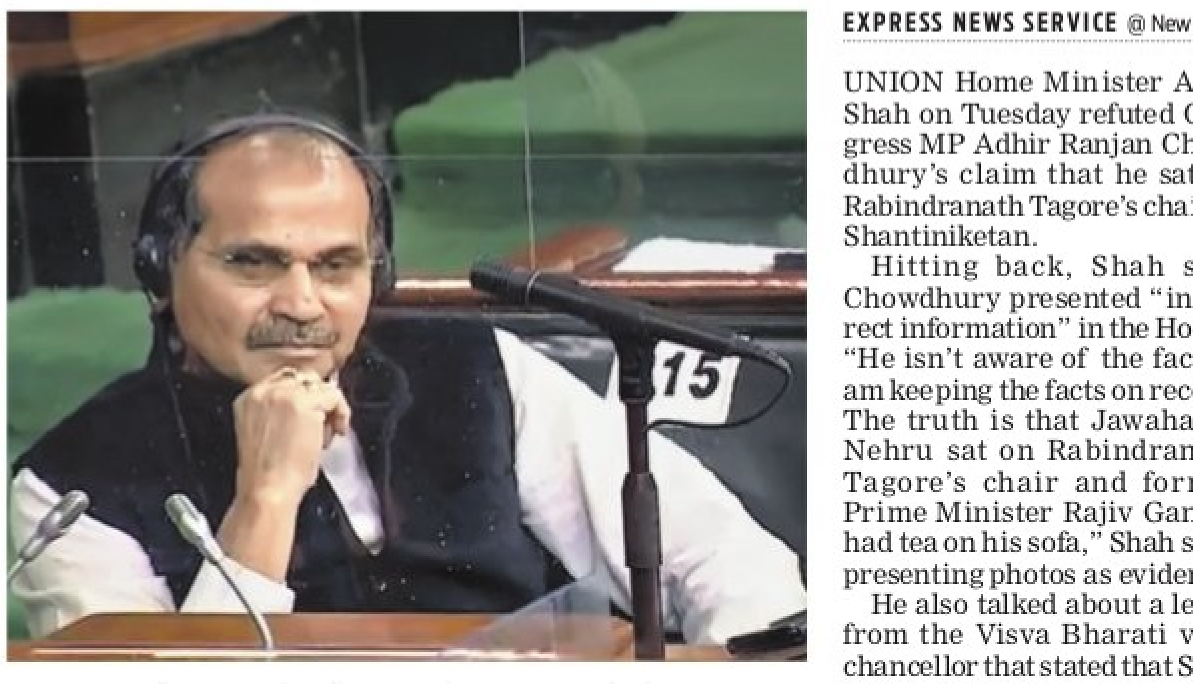
In their joint action plan released on Tuesday, the National Commission for Protection of Child Rights and the NCB said that every police station should have a list of CCTV cameras in surrounding areas of the schools in their jurisdiction.

It has also been recommended that chemists sell drugs under schedule H, H1 or X only by updating information in mobile app-based management information systems to ensure that underage kids do not get them without prescription and develop dependency.

The agencies have also suggested in their 80-page report that exclusive de-addiction and rehabilitation facilities be set up for children in 272 vulnerable districts by the Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment. "If there are constraints or lack of space, a separate portion in the existing facility has to be identified and partitioned for the children," said the report adding that in rest of the districts, it is necessary to make separate facilities for de-addiction and rehabilitation of children in all the district-level hospitals under existing norms.

According to a study by NCPCR with National Drug Dependence Treatment Centre, common drugs used by children were tobacco, alcohol, inhalants and cannabis.

Adhir unaware, Shah on Tagore seat row



Congress MP Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury in Parliament on Tuesday | PTI

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ New Delhi

UNION Home Minister Amit Shah on Tuesday refuted Congress MP Adhir Ranjan Chowdhury's claim that he sat on Rabindranath Tagore's chair in Shantiniketan.

Hitting back, Shah said Chowdhury presented "incorrect information" in the House. "He isn't aware of the facts. I am keeping the facts on record. The truth is that Jawaharlal Nehru sat on Rabindranath Tagore's chair and former Prime Minister Rajiv Gandhi had tea on his sofa," Shah said, presenting photos as evidence.

He also talked about a letter from the Visva Bharati vice-chancellor that stated that Shah sat in a window seat where people sit to write down their thoughts on visiting the place.

"The same place was occupied by former presidents Pratibha Patil and Pranab Mukherjee and even late prime minister Rajiv Gandhi. Mr. Chowdhury should've know better than follow social media on this issue. There are photographs that show Jawahar Lal Nehru Ji occupying the chair and even late Rajiv Gandhi," Shah said.

Chowdhury had alleged Shah sat on Tagore's chair and disrespected the Nobel laureate. Shah went on to add that Congress leaders in the past had done what he was being accused of. "...there are two pictures which show Pandit Nehru and Rajiv Gandhi sitting on the seat."

Proud to be Muslim in India: Azad in last speech

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

AS Prime Minister Narendra Modi got emotional during the farewell speech of Rajya Sabha's Leader of Opposition Ghulam Nabi Azad, the latter praised former Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee. He said the late Vajpayee maintained a good relationship with opposition MPs. Azad added that he is proud to be a Muslim in India.

Azad's comments come at a time when the opposition has accused the treasury benches of violating parliamentary procedures to get legislations passed. "I have fond memories of former Prime Minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee who always took care of opposition MPs. When Atalji was the Leader of Opposition, I was the Parliamentary Affairs Minister and we did not have a majority. However, as far as running the House is concerned, those were the five easiest years. I learnt from Atalji how to be an efficient Leader of Opposition," Azad told the House in his farewell speech. Interestingly, Home Minister Amit Shah was present during his speech.

"If any Muslim in the world should be proud, it should be the Muslims of India. I am among those who have never been to Pakistan, but when I study the kind of circumstances, there are evils that exist in the society of Pakistan. Although we should not say such things about other countries, we can say proudly say that such evils are not part of Muslims of India."

Dedicating a couplet to all those displaced from the valley, he said: "Us ashiyana jo ki is waqt ujda hua hai, uske liye hum sabko prayas karna hai (all of us have to make efforts to restore the nest, which is devastated now)."

ED raids news portal office on financial misdeed charges

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

THE Enforcement Directorate (ED) on Tuesday conducted searches on the premises of news portal Newclick and its promoters in connection with charges of money laundering.

According to sources in ED, they conducted searches in the premises of the website Newsclick and its promoters and Editor in Chief in South Delhi and other locations of the city.

While no further details were revealed by the sources, they added this is in connection with charges of money laundering they received against the company and its promoters and they have collected some documents and laptops to get additional information.

"At this point, we cannot reveal much. This is regarding a complain we received regarding foreign funding and this is an ongoing probe. We will share details if and when required," an ED source said.

Employees of the website confirmed that ED had conducted a search.

Social media went vocal saying this was an attempt to gag the website for its coverage of farmer's protest.

SC stays arrest of Tharoor, six journalists

Delhi Police opposes relief, Cong MP's lawyer Sibal seeks order saying no coercive action until SC takes up the case

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Tuesday stayed the arrest of Congress MP Shashi Tharoor and six journalists in criminal cases pending against them over their tweets on the death of a Sikh man during a tractor rally on January 26 in New Delhi that turned violent.

A three-judge bench headed by Chief Justice of India S A Bobde issued a notice on the petitions filed by Tharoor, Rajdeep Sardesai and five other journalists, including Mrinal Pande, Zafar Agha, Paresh Nath, Anant Nath and Vinod Jose, to quash the multiple FIRs pending against them in several states.

The bench said the stay on the arrest will continue till the next date of hearing, after two weeks, and also issued notices to Delhi Police and Uttar Pradesh, Madhya Pradesh, Karnataka and Haryana.

However, the Delhi Police opposed the stay and Solicitor General Tushar Mehta, who was appearing for them, said: "We will show the horrendous effect these tweets have had. These Twitter handles have lakhs of followers."

Senior advocate Kapil Sibal, who was representing Tharoor, said interim protection was needed as the Congress leader is in Delhi and the charge is serious. "The investigating agency can arrest me anytime," Sibal said.

At this, the bench asked Mehta: "We will hear you. But are you going to arrest him?"

Mehta replied: "We know our responsibility." The solicitor general assured that he will convey the assurance to other states. But the bench noted that Mehta was representing only the Delhi Police.

"Issue notice. Stay of arrest in the meantime. List after two weeks," the bench said.

The Delhi Police had lodged a case on January 30 against Tharoor and the journalists for alleged misreporting and spreading disharmony.

Simultaneously, cases were lodged at Gurugram in Haryana and in Madhya Pradesh under serious charges of sedition besides provisions of promoting enmity, making assertions prejudicial to national integration under the IPC, among other provisions under the Information Technology Act.

Farmers from different villages in Sonipat march towards Singhu, Kundli borders to take part in protests against farm laws | PTI

BJP facing spontaneous anger: Punjab CM

Chandigarh: Punjab CM Amarinder Singh on Tuesday said BJP leaders were facing 'spontaneous anger' of farmers and rejected as "hilarious" claims of the saffron party's state unit that the protesters were not peasants but Congress workers. Singh said the "cornered" BJP failed to muster candidates to contest even 50 per cent of the civic body seats and "tried pathetically" to shift blame for the farmers' wrath on the Congress. The BJP's fate is now sealed, not just in Punjab but also at the Centre, where its 'despotic rule is all set to end', the Punjab chief minister said.

I left NDA after finding farmers in stress: Beliwal

New Delhi: Former NDA allies, SAD and RLP slammed the government for "stubborn approach" against the agitation. The two parties, while taking part in the discussion on the Motion of Thanks to the President's address, called upon the government to take back the farm laws and come out with a legal framework for the procurement of foodgrains. "The agitation is not a matter of one state, but of a number of states from where the BJP won 120 seats in the 2019 Lok Sabha polls. You can't tire out the farmers' agitation. I left the NDA after finding the farmers in stress following the enactment of the farm laws," said RLP MP Hanuman Beliwal.

Tikait lashes out at Modi for 'andolan-jivi' remarks

KURUKSHETRA: BKU leader Rakesh Tikait on Tuesday criticised PM Narendra Modi's 'andolan-jivi' (professional protestors) remarks and asked if people like great freedom fighter Bhagat Singh will also be put in that category.

Addressing a well-attended 'Kisan Mahapanchayat' at Gumthala Garhu village in Pehowa in this district, a third within a week in Haryana, he said the government should not be under the wrong impression that the protesting farmers will return to their homes without their demands being accepted.

Without naming the PM or using his 'Andolan-jivi' phrase, Tikait said: "In Parliament, they are saying these are parjivis (parasites). Was Bhagat Singh who sacrificed his life for this nation a parjivi? What about 150 farmers who died during this agitation? Were they parjivis too? Had they gone to Delhi to agitate and die?"

Kurukshetra is a land of 'kranti' (revolution) and 'nyay' (justice) and that is why the 'mahapanchayat' is being held here to get justice for the farmers, he said. Tikait also alleged that attempts were being made to divide the protesting farmers on the lines of region and other considerations, and appealed them to reject any such design. ENS

NITISH CABINET

Caste balancing act among 17 inductees

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR @Patna

PUTTING an end to speculation, Chief Minister Nitish Kumar expanded his cabinet by inducting 17 new ministers in what is being seen as a meticulous manner to keep caste equations balanced.

Significantly, there is no Yadav or Bhumihar representation in the new set of ministers. However, the Rajputs have got the highest preference – four. They are: Lesi Singh, Neeraj Kumar Babloo, Sumit K Singh and Subhash Singh.

Out of the 17 new ministers, 11 are first-timers and young ministers out of the BJP and the JD-U quota such as Independent MLA from Jamui's Chakai seat Sumit K Singh and Md. Zama Khan, former BSP MLA from Kaimur's Chainpur and others. The 11 new inductees in the cabinet are Shahnawaz Hussain, Janak Ram (former BJP MP), Mohammed Zama Khan (formerly in BSP now in JD-U), Alok Ranjan Jha (BJP), Jayant Raj (JD-U from Amarpur), Neeraj Kumar Bablu (BJP), Subhash Singh (BJP MLA, Gopalganj), four-time BJP MLA Nitin Naveen, Sumit Kumar Singh (Independent), Sunil Kumar (JD-U & former IPS officer) and Narayan Prasad(BJP).

The number of ministers has now gone up to 31. Apart from the first-time ministers, many experienced leaders such as Shravan Kumar have become ministers for a third time. Madan Sahni, Pramod Kumar, Lesi Singh and Sanjay K Jha are second-time ministers. Samrat Chaudhary is for the third minister now.

What is interesting in the cabinet expansion is that the JD-U and BJP have tried their best to strike a balance in the caste equations. So, the BJP brought in Hussain, the party's influential minority face, through the Legislative Council and to induct him in the cabinet. The JD-U inducted former BSP leader Zama Khan, who had joined the JD-U recently.

Mamata roars after Nadda's culture jibe

KOLKATA: BJP chief J P Nadda sought to present his party as the vanguard of Bengal's cultural riches following which Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee reminded her detractors that she was not weak to get intimidated in the face of opposition.

At Tarapith in Birbhum district on Tuesday, Nadda slammed the ruling Trinamool Congress for dividing communities by branding a section of people as outsiders. "This is shameful. It is not the culture of the land of Swami Vivekananda, Rabindranath Tagore." "Under Mamata's rule, the rich culture and heritage of West Bengal are under threat. Only the BJP can protect these," he said, after flagging off the second phase of the 'Parivartan Yatra' in the poll-bound state. "The TMC's slogan of 'Maa, Mati, Manush' (mother, land and people) was reduced to "dictatorship, tolabaji (extortion) and appeasement", he said, adding that the BJP would usher in "asol paribartan" (real change) in Bengal.

Not one to take things lying down, Mamata whipped up the image of a tiger asserting that she would not yield without a fight. "There is no reason to think I am weak. I am not a person to be afraid of anything. I am a strong person and will keep my head high as long as I live and till then I will live like a Royal Bengal Tiger," the TMC supremo told a rally at Murshidabad, the capital of Bengal's last nawab Siraj-ud-Daullah. "People from Gujarat will not rule Bengal. The Trinamool Congress will rule Bengal."

As for TMC defectors, Mamata chastised them as 'Mir Jafars' — the Bengali equivalent of Quislings.

"The BJP seems to be a washing machine... Those having dirty hands emerge clean after joining it," she said, referring to those who had switched their allegiance. ENS

Mufti accuses J&K admin of violating poll mandate

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

PDP chief Mehbooba Mufti alleged on Tuesday senior officers in the administration and police are helping the BJP in violating the people's mandate in the elections to the posts of chairpersons of the DDCs.

"So much for Vajpayee ji's vision of insaniyat, Kashmiriyat & jamhuriyat. Not surprised at all by recent DDC Chairmanship results. Two months were given to buy & intimidate the DDC members," Mufti wrote on Twitter, referring to a slogan coined by former prime minister Atal Bihari Vajpayee.

The former Jammu and Kashmir chief minister said the BJP had already murdered "insaniyat" (humanity) and "Kashmiriyat" by scrapping Article 370 of the Constitution in August 2019 and now, by "manipulating the DDC election results", it has put "the final nail in the coffin" of democracy.

"Disgusting that senior officers in admin & police have taken it upon themselves to violate the mandate of people. By scrapping Article 370, BJP had already murdered insaniyat & Kashmiriyat. Now by manipulating DDC results, they've put the final nail in the coffin of Jamhuriyat," she said in another tweet.

UPSC EXAM

Not in favour of giving relaxation in age limit: Govt

NEW DELHI: The Centre on Tuesday told the Supreme Court that it was against granting one-time relaxation on the age limit to UPSC civil service candidates, including those who had exhausted their last attempt in the 2020 exam amid the pandemic, and would get one more chance this year provided they are not age barred, as it would be discriminatory to other aspirants.

The Centre informed this to a bench headed by Justice AM Khanwilkar, which reserved its verdict on a batch of pleas, which had sought one more chance in the UPSC's civil services exam to those aspirants who could not appear in their last attempt in 2020 due to the pandemic.

Additional Solicitor General S V Raju, appearing for the government, said initially the government was not willing to concede the extra chance and it was later done at the suggestion of the bench.

"This is not the exam where you prepare at the last minutes. People prepare for years together," Raju told the bench. On February 5, the Centre had told the SC that it was agreeable to give an extra chance as a one-time relaxation to those aspirants, who had appeared in their last attempt in the exam and are otherwise not age-barred. ENS

No link in Covid vax shots and deaths so far: Centre

NEW DELHI: The National Adverse Event Following Immunisation Committee for Covid-19 met for the first time last week and discussed eight adverse events, including two deaths, the Centre said on Tuesday.

Causality assessment of five cases, comprising three hospitalisations, was carried out, and the hospitalisations were found to be related to vaccination, said Union health secretary Rajesh Bhushan at a press briefing.

However, the fatalities — one of which was due to an acute coronary event and other due to a complication of chronic kidney disease — were concluded to be just coincidental. In the other three death cases, the panel has sought a histopathology and chemical analysis report, said the official. There have been deaths of 23 individuals of about 63 lakh people who have taken Covid-19 shots in India, and in each of the death cases, local AEFI panels have dubbed them as not related to coincidental. ENS

UP to come up with quota policy for panchayat polls

NAMITA BAJPAI @ Lucknow

THE UP rural local body polls, already delayed due to the Covid pandemic, are round the corner. State Panchayati Raj Minister has said the reservation policy for the village panchayats will be out this week.

The state election commission is yet to announce the dates, though last week, the Allahabad High Court directed the state authorities and state poll panel to complete the rural local body polls by April 30.

The state government appointed administrative officers for these local bodies a day after the end of the tenure of 58,000 gram panchayats on Dec 25, last year. This time, 880 gram panchayats have been reduced due to the expansion of urban bodies in the last five years, the state government said in a response to a query by the HC on delay in holding these elections. Advocate general Raghavendra Singh, the counsel for the poll panel, explained that many gram panchayats were merged into urban areas due to urbanization. As a result, the gram panchayats had to be delimited afresh. While 59,074 village pradhans were elected in 2016, only 58,194 village heads would be elected in the upcoming polls.

The Election Commission told the High Court the voter list schedule was prepared on January 22. While the work related to delimitation was completed on Jan 28, details on reservation of seats remained incomplete. "That's why the election schedule has not been released," the counsel said. The panel said once the reservation of seats was fixed, the election will take 45 days. After the HC order, it is believed that on March 18, the state poll panel may issue notification for the elections.

Maintaining that the government was ready for the polls, Panchayati Raj Minister Bhupendra Singh Chaudhury said the reorganisation and delimitation of the gram panchayats was over and that the reservation policy would be out by the weekend. "The panel could then announce the dates for the polls any time," he said.

Solar panels on rail route to save electricity

The Dhanbad Railway Division (DRD) will install solar panels on the 50 km route of the upcoming 160 km section of New Delhi-Howrah route that falls under the division. Officials said the travel time between aforementioned would be possible in 12 hours once the route is upgraded. The solar panels would help save electricity as it would be made available to the division via existing grids, they said. He said the division now operates all its trains both goods and passengers by electrical locomotives this saves huge quantities of diesel as well as is also able to reduce engine changing time across the division.

HCWs have to give declaration for not getting vaccine

Healthcare workers who do not want to get vaccinated against the coronavirus in Ranchi will have to submit a declaration stating that they have voluntarily opted out of the immunisation programme. The decision was taken after most of the healthcare workers did not turn up for vaccination without specifying reasons. As per the data collected by the National Health Mission, over 75 per cent healthcare and frontline workers registered for free vaccination either did not turn up at the jab sites or backed out from taking the vaccine in Ranchi district. Officials, however, said declarations from those who do not want to get the vaccine had been sought only for maintaining records related to the immunisation programme in the district and nobody will be forced to take shots against his or her consent.

Drone to conduct surveys, mapping of mines

For the first time, the Central Mine Planning and Design Institute (CMPDI) in Ranchi received a high-end drone to conduct surveys and mapping in coal mining areas. According to officials, the hi-tech drones loaded with mapping facility will be used for different purposes such as laser sensing for volumetric measurement of overburden lying above a coal or mineral reserves and optical sensing for land reclamation after mining activity is completed in the area. So far, these activities were being carried out through terrestrial laser technique and satellite imaging. But now, drones will be used for such purposes under the upgradation programme of Geometrics department of CMPDI, making it time-saving.

State government approves CSR policy

The state government has approved its first-ever CSR policy for the overall development of its people, to create an enabling environment and increase the total volume of investments for the self-regulating business model. With the help of this policy, the government plans to create a conducive environment for attracting CSR investments and best management practices to address various developmental challenges within the state of Jharkhand. It will lead to the establishment of a partnership between the state government, corporates and civil society groups in streamlining their activities, the government said.

Trump's second trial starts with Capitol under thick security cover

Proceedings kick off with debate on whether a former president can be tried in Senate

US House impeachment managers walk to the Senate chamber on the eve of the start of Trump impeachment trial | AFP

WASHINGTON

THE lead prosecutor in the impeachment trial of former US president Donald Trump said on Tuesday his case was based on "cold, hard facts," and proceeded to present video evidence that Trump incited violence on January 6.

The historic second impeachment trial of Trump began with debate on whether trying an ex-president is indeed constitutional.

Lead House impeachment manager Jamie Raskin, a lawmaker from Maryland, told senators he would not bore them with professorial speak, saying: "You will not be hearing extended lectures here from me because our case is based on cold, hard facts."

"It's our solemn constitutional duty to conduct a fair and honest impeachment trial of the charges against former president Trump—the gravest charges ever brought against a president of the United States in American history," Democratic Majority Leader Chuck Schumer said.

Democratic Senator Patrick Leahy is presiding over the trial, which will begin with hours of debate, followed by a vote, on the constitutionality of trying an ex-president.

This will almost certainly be just a formality as the Democrats have enough votes, but it will give early indication of how open Republicans are to the case at all.

The main part of the trial will start Wednesday, with each side having 16 hours to present oral arguments.

Democrats hold 50 of the 100 Senate seats and Vice President Kamala Harris is able to cast votes to end tiebreaks. But it would take a two-thirds majority for a conviction, meaning at least 17 Republican senators would have to join.

Outside, thousands of National Guard troops deployed in the aftermath of the debacle continue to patrol, while hastily thrown up fences barricade the area from ordinary Americans—visible proof that the aftershocks of the Trump era continue to rumble.

With the country at its most polarised in at least half a century, the impeachment trial risks becoming a new flashpoint.

Amped up on four years of Trump's populist claims to be fighting for ordinary people against the elites, huge numbers of Republican voters continue to support the ex-president, pushing their party ever further to the right. A second acquittal is all but certain for Trump, who is holed up in his luxury Mar-a-Lago resort in Florida and, after being barred from Twitter, has spent the weeks since leaving office in near silence. AFP

A TIGHTROPE TO WALK FOR EX-PREZ

Donald Trump's legal team will use three key arguments to defend him against the charge that he incited the January 6 Capitol riot

DISMISS ARGUMENT THAT TRUMP INCITED THE RIOTS

Defence lawyers are adamant that Trump did not incite the riot when he addressed a huge crowd of supporters at a rally that preceded it. They accuse House impeachment managers of cherry-picking Trump's statements from an hourlong speech by highlighting only those that Democrats see as helpful to their case, pointing out repeatedly that he had told his supporters to "peacefully and patriotically make your voices heard."

'HIS SPEECH IS PROTECTED'

The Trump legal team plans to lean on the Constitution in multiple ways, including by arguing that Trump enjoyed First Amendment protections in everything he said to his supporters

CHALLENGE THE TRIAL'S CONSTITUTIONAL VALIDITY

This is disputed among legal scholars, but Trump's legal team plans to argue that the trial itself is unconstitutional because he is no longer in office. They say the Constitution does not extend the power of impeachment against a "private citizen."

Nepal's 'Prachanda' seeks support of India, China in struggle against PM Oli

KATHMANDU

CHAIRPERSON of the Nepal Communist Party's splinter faction Pushpa Kamal Dahal 'Prachanda' said on Tuesday his party has appealed to the international community, including India and China, to extend support to its ongoing struggle against Prime Minister K P Oli's "unconstitutional and undemocratic move" to dissolve Parliament.

Nepal plunged into a political crisis on December 20 after Oli, in a surprise move, dissolved the House of Representatives, amidst a tussle for power with Prachanda. His move to dissolve the 275-member House sparked protests from a large section of the NCP led by Prachanda, also a co-chair of the ruling party.

"The House of Representatives must be reinstated if we are to consolidate federalism and democracy and take the peace process to the logical conclusion," Prachanda told journalists.

"I believe that the Supreme Court would not endorse Prime Minister Oli's unconstitutional and undemocratic move to dissolve the House of Representatives," he said ahead of his faction's massive protest rally in Kathmandu on Wednesday.

He also warned that if the House is not reinstated, the country would plunge into a grave political crisis.

Prachanda said that his party has appealed to the international community, including neighbouring India and China, to extend support to their ongoing struggle against Oli's unconstitutional move of dissolving the House of Representatives.

Pushpa Kamal Dahal 'Prachanda' | AFP

"We have conveyed to the international community that Oli's move has resulted in the demise of democracy and we seek support from the international community including India, China, European Union and the US to protect hard earned federalism and democracy," said Prachanda.

India has described Oli's sudden decision to dissolve Parliament and call for fresh elections as an "internal matter" that is for the country to decide as per its democratic processes.

However, China sent a four-member high-level delegation to Nepal in December to prevent a split within the ruling party. The team—led by a Vice minister of the Chinese Communist Party, Guo Yezhou—held separate meetings with several top NCP leaders before returning home without much success in its mission. PTI

Traffic jams as Germany, UK see heaviest snowfall in yrs

BERLIN

FREEZING drivers were stranded for several hours in traffic jams in Germany and Covid-19 vaccination centres were shut in Britain on Tuesday as Europe was pummelled by the heaviest snow in years.

Some parts of Germany were cloaked in up to 50 centimetres of snow by Tuesday afternoon, according to local media reports. Traffic on a motorway near the city of Bielefeld was brought to a standstill overnight Monday into Tuesday, with some drivers trapped for at least 16 hours. The bottleneck, caused by lorries stuck in the snow, stretched over 37 kilometres, police said.

Video footage showed shivering drivers huddled in their vehicles, complaining of going for hours without food as temperatures plunged to minus 12 degrees Celsius. Severe jams were also reported in Hesse state, where some drivers were stuck in their cars for 15 hours, according to police.

Parts of England, Scotland and Northern Ireland were placed on amber alert on Tuesday, with major disruptions expected to road and rail travel, according to the Met Office weather service. Heavy snow on Tuesday morning drew many to London's parks for sledging, while parts of northern and eastern England were expecting 15 centimetres. AFP

UK tightens curbs, 10-yr jail for those who lie about travel history

UK Health Secretary Matt Hancock addresses media in London | AFP

LONDON

TRAVELLERS in the UK, who hide their visits to areas affected by new Covid-19 virus variant, will face up to 10 years in jail, under a "brutal crackdown" launched by Prime Minister Boris Johnson's government. The country has been one of the worst affected in the global health crisis, with some 113,000 deaths, and is banking on a mass vaccination drive to cut infection rates.

But fears have grown over new variants of the virus, including a South African strain that may be more resistant to new vaccines.

Now, travellers who already must show evidence of a negative test 72 hours before their trip will have to take two Covid tests during a mandatory 10-day quarantine period.

The tests will have to be taken on days two and eight of self-isolation after arrival, with any positive result adding 10 more days to the confinement. Health Secretary Matt Hancock told parliament that British or Irish residents arriving from 33 countries deemed high risk of new variants will have to stay in one of 16 designated hotels in England.

Travellers found to have given false information about being in a "red list" country 10 days before travel could receive up to 10 years in prison. AFP

Myanmar agitators hit by rubber bullets

YANGON

SECURITY forces fired rubber bullets and tear gas at anti-coup protesters in Myanmar on Tuesday as demonstrators around the country defied a military ban on rallies.

Protests erupted for a fourth straight day against last week's coup to oust civilian leader Aung San Suu Kyi, as international condemnation of the putsch grew.

The rallies came despite a warning from the junta that it would take action against demonstrations that threatened "stability", and a new ban on gatherings of more than five people. In Naypyidaw, the remote capital purpose-built by the previous military regime, witnesses said police fired rubber bullets at protesters after earlier blasting them with water cannon.

"They fired warning shots to the sky two times, then they fired (at protesters) with rubber bullets," a resident said, adding he saw some people injured. It remained unclear how many people were hurt, as a hospital in Naypyidaw would not allow relatives in to see their family members, said Tun Wai, who rushed there when he heard his 23-year-old son was in the operation room. "My son was shot when he tried to use the megaphone to ask people to protest peacefully after the police used water cannon to disperse them," the 56-year-old goldsmith said.

"He got hit in the back… I'm very worried about him." In Mandalay, the country's second-biggest city, police fired tear gas to disperse protesters.

After watching hundreds of thousands of people rally in opposition to last week's coup, junta chief General Min Aung Hlaing made a televised speech on Monday evening to justify seizing power.

The first of a series of bans on gatherings in protest hotspots was also announced on Monday, as was a nighttime curfew. But on Tuesday, fresh protests initially emerged in various parts of Yangon. AFP

PAKISTAN, TURKEY BEGIN MILITARY EXERCISES

ISLAMABAD

A three-week long joint military exercise involving Pakistani and Turkish special forces began in northwestern Pakistan on Tuesday.

The opening ceremony of the exercise was held at the Pakistani military's Special Service Group (SSG) headquarters in Tarbela at Khyber-Pakhtunkhwa province, the Pakistan Army said in a statement. Turkish Special Forces and Pakistan Army's SSG are participating in the exercise aiming to cover specialist skills including counter-terrorism, close quarter battle, and search, fire and manoeuvre techniques, helicopter rappelling and rescue and free fall operations, it said. PTI

Centre to bring bill on cryptocurrency soon: FM

MoS Finance says current laws inadequate to deal with the subject

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE Centre on Tuesday said that the Inter-ministerial panel on cryptocurrecy has submitted its report and that a bill to regulate cryptocurrency is being finalised. This bill is likely to be sent to the Union Cabinet for approval soon.

"A high-level Inter-Ministerial Committee (IMC) was constituted under the Chairmanship of Secretary (Economic Affairs) to study the issues related to virtual currencies and propose specific actions to be taken in the matter recommended in its report that all private cryptocurrencies, except any virtual currencies issued by state, will be prohibited in India," Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman said in reply to a question in the Rajya Sabhya on whether the Centre was planning to issue guidelines on cryptocurrency. Earlier on Tuesday, Minister of State for Finance Anurag Thakur had also said in Parliament that the government will bring in the bill soon. Thakur added that the government had formed the inter-ministerial panel because the existing laws were inadequate to deal with the subject.

"This committee has submitted a report, following which there will be a meeting of the empowered technology group. The committee of secretaries has also given its report, and now the bill is being finalised before it's sent to the Cabinet," Thakur added. He was responding to a question asked in the Parliament.

> A high-level Inter-Ministerial Committee... recommended that all private virtual currencies, except any issued by the state, will be prohibited in India
> Nirmala Sitharaman, Union Minister of Finance

"The RBI took initiative and banned cryptocurrencies. Based on all this, reports were submitted and the government has prepared a bill, which will be tabled in Parliament soon," he said. The minister's response comes after reports that the Centre is planning to ban private cryptocurrencies, including Bitcoin, by introducing a bill in Parliament. Reports have also said that the Centre is planning an official digital currency of its own under the Reserve Bank of India.

The RBI had virtually banned cryptocurrency trading in 2018 and had directed all entities regulated by the central bank to cease dealing in virtual currencies. The Supreme Court had also asked the Centre in 2019 to frame policies for crypto, and in 2020, struck down the curbs imposed by the RBI.

'Confident of full recovery in the next fiscal'

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

WITH the vaccination drive gathering steam and a steady improvement seen in economic indicators, the government is confident of a full recovery in the next fiscal year.

"The structural reforms and the policy push under the AatmaNirbhar Bharat Mission along with the slew of measures announced in the Union Budget 2021-22 towards achieving broad based inclusive growth will strengthen the fundamentals of the economy and bring it back on to a strong and sustainable growth path in the year ahead. Growth and inflation outlook in 2021-22 portends more than full recovery," the monthly economy report released by the Ministry of Finance said on Tuesday.

The ministry's Department of Economic Affairs added that with each day ending with Covid-19 cases falling to new lows and economic activity levels attaining new peaks, India has worked its way around the pandemic. "A sustained and strengthening economic recovery continues to be witnessed across key high frequency indicators... GST collections in January, 2021 have been the highest monthly collections so far," the report pointed out.

IOB net profit at ₹213 cr, eyes PCA exit

SESA SEN @ New Delhi

INDIAN Overseas Bank (IOB), which was brought under the prompt corrective action (PCA) framework of RBI in October 2015, has exhibited a stellar performance for the quarter ended December 2020 and is now hoping to exit the framework as early as the first half of the next financial year.

The lender has posted a net profit for the fourth consecutive quarter in Q3FY21, after having incurred losses for 18 quarters before the turnaround. For the quarter ended December 2020, net profit came in at ₹213 crore driven by lower provisioning and high cash recovery against a net loss of ₹6,075 crore for the corresponding period last fiscal.

> The bank is on the right track. Capital infusion of close to ₹8,217 crore in two tranches from the government has helped us clean our books.
>
> Partha Pratim Sengupta, MD & CEO, IOB

"The bank is on the right track. Capital infusion of close to ₹8,217 crore in two tranches from the government has helped us clean our books," said managing director and CEO Partha Pratim Sengupta. The Chennai-based lender has set a tough cash-recovery target of ₹1,000 crore a quarter and has recovered ₹1,055 crore in Q3 as economic activities regained pace. "We have also taken various measures such as reducing our exposure to stressed sectors, which helped us trim losses and contain slippages. Now, it's a matter of time to come out from the PCA," Sengupta said.

IOB also expects to restructure debt worth ₹3,000 crore in the current financial year under the Reserve Bank of India-approved one-time restructuring scheme—about 2.5 per cent of its book. About ₹18,000 crore worth of assets await NCLT resolutions, out of which ₹3,251,20 crore from 21 accounts has been recovered.

"In the last quarter, resolution of some big accounts will further strengthen the balance sheet," said the IOB chief. During the quarter, Gross NPA fell to 12.19 per cent from 17.12 per cent as on December 31, 2019, while net NPA dropped to 3.13 per cent from 5.81 per cent.

ASIANOMICS

JAPAN

HOUSEHOLDS, FIRMS CONTINUE TO PILE ON CASH

Japan's currency in circulation and bank deposits rose at a record pace in January indicating that companies and households have continued to hoard cash due to uncertainty over the coronavirus pandemic. Data suggests any recovery in Japan's economy will be fragile as the state of emergency curbs rolled out last month hurt consumption and heighten fears of another recession. Japan's M3 money stock—or currency in circulation and deposits at financial institutions—rose 7.8 per cent in January over last year, marking the biggest increase on record, data from the Bank of Japan showed. The rise topped a 7.6 per cent gain in December. Bank deposits jumped 15.5 per cent in January, while cash in circulation grew 5.7 per cent. Companies have been piling up money from subsidies and loans they took as a precaution against the health crisis, while households are holding back on spending due to the third wave of infections.

SINGAPORE

WEALTH BUSINESS MAY BOOST BANKS' EARNINGS

Singaporean banks are likely to see strong revenue from the wealth business bolstering their profits this year, with improving economic prospects also expected to cushion the impact on their interest margins, which are hovering near record lows. Wealth management looks promising for the global banking sector, hit by the Covid-19-induced economic downturn and sharply lower lending rates, helping them book higher client advisory fees as well as robust trading income. Singapore has benefitted in recent years from its status as a stable base to set up family offices and investment structures for the world's wealthy, providing a lucrative business for local banks including DBS Group and OCBC. DBS, Southeast Asia's biggest bank, and peers OCBC and UOB are expected to post lower net profits in Q4 over last year. All three are also expected to see full-year profit declines in 2020 for the first time in 3 years due to higher bad loans.

TAIWAN

JANUARY EXPORTS OUTLOOK ROSY

Taiwan's exports rose in January for the seventh consecutive month, with the unexpectedly strong pace setting a new record as its manufacturers benefitted from consumers staying at home during the pandemic. Exports to China, Taiwan's largest trading partner, jumped an annual 57%, while exports to the US grew 21.9% year-on-year. In all, exports jumped 36.8% from a year earlier to S$34.27 billion in January—the highest monthly figure on record, the Ministry of Finance said. This was helped by a low base with the week-long Lunar New Year holiday falling in January last year. The ministry attributed the growth to demand for chips needed to help power the "zero touch economy" exceeding expectations, as millions are forced to work and study remotely. The Ministry expected exports to steadily expand in the first quarter, saying that vaccines will help the global economic recovery and that Taiwan stood ready to benefit.

After short December recovery, retail auto sales back in the red

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

AFTER showing a one-time year-on-year growth in December 2020, retail auto sales have slipped back into the negative zone during the month of January 2021. According to the Federation of Automobile Dealers Associations (FADA), January 2021 auto registrations fell 9.66 per cent year-on-year to 15,92,636 units.

"Non-availability of vehicles due to scarcity of semiconductors, a fading pent-up demand and recent price hikes coupled with no festivities and auspicious days landed January registrations in negative zone," said FADA in a statement.

All categories except Tractor were in the red last month. Passenger vehicle (PV) retail sales in January was down by 4.46 per cent to 2,81,666 units. However, compared to December 2020 (2,71,249 units), January PV sales were up by 3.82 per cent.

FADA President Vinkesh Gulati said, "The auto industry clearly misjudged the demand which returned post-lockdown. Industry's under estimation of the post-covid rebound along with chipmakers prioritizing higher-volume and more lucrative consumer electronics market has created a vacuum for semiconductors. This has resulted in shortage in supply for all categories of vehicles especially Passenger Vehicles even though enquiry levels and bookings remained high".

New launches and SUVs continued to see high traction during the month and helped in restricting the overall PV registrations fall by a bigger margin, added Gulati. Two-wheeler retail sales were down by 8.78 per cent y-o-y to 11,63,322 units while commercial vehicle sales was down by 25 per cent to 55,835 units for the month.

"The recent price hike undertaken by Auto OEMs also added to the woes as two-wheelers have become more expensive for the lower and middle income classes. Commercial Vehicle registrations were also hit due to vehicle financing still not back to normal and high BS-6 cost," said Gulati.

Dealer inventory for PVs continued to fall and has come down to a range of 10-15 days, while two-wheeler inventory stayed put at 30-35 days. In its near term outlook, FADA said the Centre's scrappage policy is in right direction.

PARLIAMENT

DoT pulled up for Bharatnet delays by panel

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

THE Department of Telecom (DoT) has been pulled up by the Parliamentary Standing Committee on Information Technology for the delay in preparing a cabinet note for the roll-out of a public-private partnership (PPP) model for the rural broadband Bharatnet project. In its report the panel said that this had not been done even though a whole year has passed since the Digital Communication Commission (DCC) gave its approval for the initiative.

The BharatNet project is meant to cover all 2.5 lakh village panchayats with high speed broadband and was set to be completed by March 2019. However, so far, the count of such panchayats connected stand at half the target at 1.18 lakh gram panchayats (GPs).

The DCC had last year given in-principle approval to move to a public private partnership (PPP) model in order to expedite the project's implementation. The DoT was required to take cabinet approval post the DCC green light, but little progress has been made. The DoT informed the panel that a draft cabinet note was under preparation.

"The committee are, however, disheartened to note that cabinet draft note is still under preparation," the panel said in its report tabled in Lok Sabha on Monday, observing that the state-led model could not implement the initiative at the anticipated speed.

TATA POWER

Current Price
₹87.15

Target Price
₹105

We maintain a Buy on Tata Power taking into account: a) the recent takeover of Odisha DISCOMs, b) higher EPC profitability, c) benefits from the merger of CGPL and Tata Power Solar with itself, and d) higher valuations for the renewable business. The improvement in the company's earnings for the third quarter of FY21 was led by interest cost reduction and profitability in its Odisha distribution business.

BPCL Q3 NET PROFIT DOUBLES AS CRUDE RATES RISE

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

BHARAT Petroleum Corporation Ltd (BPCL) on Tuesday reported a more than doubling of its net profit for the December quarter year-on-year due to a sharp rise in inventory gains resulting from rising crude oil prices. According to financials released by the oil marketing company, its net profit in the October-December quarter (Q3FY21) stood at ₹2,777.6 crore—120 per cent higher than the ₹1,260.6 crore recorded in the corresponding period of the previous year.

"Third quarter (of 2020-21 fiscal) has been the strongest in terms of profit before tax and profit after tax in this fiscal year. We are back to pre-COVID levels of sales," said BPCL Director (Finance) N Vijayagopal while speaking to the press after release.

The company booked an inventory gain of ₹771 crore for the quarter as fuel it produced by acquiring crude oil at low prices was sold at higher rates as crude oil prices increased over the last three months of 2020 on recovering demand.

The OMC also recorded a foreign exchange gain of ₹76 crore for the period.

As for its refining operations, BPCL, which owns four refineries in the country, earned $2.47 on turning every barrel of crude oil into fuel during quarter—down from $3.23 per barrel gross refining margin (GRM) witnessed in the corresponding period a year ago. Total sales, meanwhile, were up 1.4 per cent at ₹86,579.9 crore. "COVID is over for us," said Vijayagopal, adding that domestic sales of petroleum products stood at 11.10 million tonnes in the third quarter compared to 11.02 million tonnes sold last year.

With demand returning following a relaxation in pandemic restrictions, the firm's refineries are operating at 105 per cent of capacity.

Adani Ports & SEZ consolidated profit jumps by 16% to ₹1,576 crore in Q3

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

ADANI Ports and Special Economic Zone Limited (APSEZ) on Tuesday reported a 16.22 per cent increase in its consolidated profit for the third quarter ended December 2020. The company posted a consolidated profit of ₹1,576.53 crore compared to ₹1,356.43 crore in the corresponding period a year earlier.

Its total consolidated income during the period increased to ₹4,274.79 crore from ₹3,830.43 crore in the year-ago period.

According to the company's exchange filings, its total expenses during the quarter increased also to ₹2,258.62 crore, compared to ₹2,091.40 crore for the corresponding period of the previous last year.

Karan Adani, Chief Executive Officer and Whole Time Director of APSEZ said in a statement said that the team at APSEZ continues to innovate and establish operational excellence as the key differentiator, thus improving margins.

"For instance, at KPCL, which was acquired in October, we have improved the EBIDTA margin from 55 per cent to 71 per cent. APSEZ is well on course to achieve 500 MMT (metric million tonne) of cargo throughput by FY25," he said.

Muthoot Fin Q3 net profit up 22% to ₹991.4 cr

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

MUTHOOT Finance Ltd (MFIN) on Tuesday reported a 22 per cent jump in standalone profit after tax at ₹991.4 crore for the quarter ended December 2020. The company had posted a profit of ₹815.2 crore during the corresponding period of the previous year.

On a consolidated basis, its profit after tax rose to ₹1,006.7 crore from ₹861 crore last year, while its total income grew 20 per cent to ₹2,777 crore from ₹2,321 crore earlier.

"The growth during the quarter was very good. Our standalone loan assets... has crossed the landmark of ₹50,000 crore. Our active customers presently having a loan account also crossed the landmark of 50 lakh," said MD George Alexander Muthoot.

Indigo parent pays ₹2.1 cr to settle with SEBI

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

INDIGO Airlines promoter InterGloble Aviation has settled its dispute with market regulator Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi) by agreeing to pay settlement charges of ₹2.10 crore. SEBI has now disposed of adjudication proceedings against InterGlobe Aviation.

"...The applicant vide its letter dated January 7, 2021, proposed the payment of ₹2,10,37,500 towards full and final settlement of all regulatory, civil or criminal proceedings in relation to the facts contained in the SCN without admitting ordenying any violation on its part," said the settlement order issued by adjudicating officer G Ramar.

The matter is related to the alleged violation of related party transactions (RPTs) that co-founder Rakesh Gangwal had complained to SEBI about in 2019. Gangwal had alleged several violations of corporate governance lapses, RPT norms, disclosure norms and misrepresentation in the IPO documents made by the airline's other co-founder Rahul Bhatia's IGE Group.

Bhatia had repeatedly denied these allegations and even questioned Gangwal's contribution in building the airline.

Godrej expands cold storage biz for vaccines, bags order worth ₹150 cr

SESA SEN @ New Delhi

GODREJ Appliances has bagged orders worth ₹150 crore from both central and state governments and PSUs, as well as international bodies, to supply medical refrigerators and freezers for vaccination programmes. The company has recently won orders in the range of ₹10-30 crore from a handful of states such as Odisha. It is also anticipating orders from a few more states that have laid out plans for Covid-19 vaccination such as Maharashtra.

According to the company, the drive will lead to an up to 40 per cent jump in revenues from medical refrigeration equipment in FY21. "We have already completed about 55 per cent of the central government tender worth ₹95 crore that we had won in October 2020, and we are hopeful to close it by March," said Kamal Nandi, business head and EVP, Godrej Appliances, adding revenue is expected to rise by at least 30-40 per cent in the current financial year. The company had recorded a revenue of approximately ₹4,500 crore in FY20.

The share of medical refrigeration equipment in overall revenue is also likely to go up to 7-8 per cent from the current five per cent. The market size of the medical refrigerator segment is pegged at ₹2,000-2,500 crore, said Nandi.

Godrej on Tuesday also launched ultra-low temperature freezers, a development that could pave the way for the launch of Pfizer and Moderna vaccines in the Indian market—both are required to be stored at -80°C. The firm is also using its mobile medical clinic platform to assist in the next phase of vaccine deployment. The current production capacity for ultra-low temperature freezers is 12,000 units per annum, and Godrej says it is working towards quickly ramping up to 30,000 units per annum in order to meet the growing global demand. In the case of medical refrigerators, the company has increased its production capacity from 10,000 units per annum to over 35,000 units currently.

Shiva and Gaayathri toppers in shooting trials

Shiva Narwal of Haryana (men's 10m air pistol) beat the likes of Saurabh Chaudhary to win the national shooting trials (T3) in New Delhi, on Tuesday. Chaudhary settled for the third spot. Tamil Nadu's N Gaayathri emerged winner in the women's 50m rifle 3 positions.

SWING IS KING

Evergreen Anderson changes course of match in four balls with an old trick, India lose home Test after 1445 days

VENKATA KRISHNA B @Chennai

ON a pitch that was breaking-up and against a batting line-up that was daring to do the impossible, James Anderson swung it England's way. Actually, reverse-swung it England's way. After 1445 days, India have lost a Test match at home. And it needed a special performance from one of the best touring sides of the last decade, England, to stop India's unbeaten run at home. Test victories in India don't come easily for tourists. In fact, since 2010, they have lost only four Tests at home and three have been against England. And there is one common thread that connects them. Anderson has been part of it all. At 38, when most pacers are already in the commentary box, he is still steaming in, hiding the red-cherry at times, and plotting a batsman's wicket. He just needs one more win to join an elite list of men from the Caribbean to have the most wins (5) in India.

He troubled Sachin Tendulkar during the 2006 series which resulted in the fans inside the stadium jeer him. In 2012, he made MS Dhoni call him the difference between both the teams. He made Virat Kohli his bunny in 2014. And in 2021, he is still out there, dismissing Gill, the torch-bearer of India's next generation of batsmen. Despite having 611 Test wickets to his name, Anderson's record in Asia is often held against him, although the stats have always said a different story. In these parts, where swing is non-existent, only pacers with great skillset have thrived. Anderson they said, doesn't have those. On Tuesday, under clear Chennai skies, Anderson delivered a masterclass with Jack Leach complimenting him with four wickets including that of the Cheteshwar Pujara.

England's James Anderson cleans up Ajinkya Rahane on Day 5 | SPORTZPICS

SCOREBOARD

England 1st innings: 578.

India 1st innings: 337.

England 2nd innings: 178.

India 2nd innings (overnight 39/1): Gill b Anderson 50, Pujara c Stokes b Leach 15, Kohli b Stokes 72, Rahane b Anderson 0, Pant c Root b Anderson 11, Washington c Buttler b Bess 0, Ashwin c Buttler B Leach 9, Nadeem c Burns b Leach 0, Ishant (not out) 5, Bumrah c Buttler b Archer 4. Extras (b8, lb5, nb1) 14. Total (58.1 overs, all out) 192. FoW: 1-25, 2-58, 3-92, 4-92, 5-110, 6-117, 7-171, 8-179, 9-179. Bowling: Archer 9.1-4-23-1, Leach 26-4-76-4, Anderson 11-4-17-3, Bess 8-0-50-1, Stokes 4-1-13-1.

When Joe Root threw the ball to Anderson in the 26th over of the day it was a make or break moment. The SG ball, which has gone soft quicker than expected (by the 30-over mark), was on the threshold of becoming an older, softer ball. Jofra Archer had found some reverse-swing in the morning. But England let the spinners bowl a few more so that it could wear down further before giving Anderson a bowl.

Though the pitch was breaking up, the pacers had only a small portion of the pitch to operate on, it was where the odd-ball was keeping low. On such pitches, who better than Anderson to land consistently on the spot and cause trouble?

Off his second ball, Anderson breached Gill's defence with a full-ball that reverse-swung in. Off his fourth ball, he nearly had Ajinkya Rahane LBW, only for the batsman to survive on the basis of umpire's call. Surely, he can't bowl another gem this over. Or so Rahane thought. Few seconds later, Rahane looked behind only to see the middle and leg stump intact as Anderson had the match in the bag before the first drinks break. Off his fourth over, he removed Rishabh Pant too as his spell read: 5-3-6-3. Kohli resisted for a while, but India fell short by 227 runs.

"I don't think I did anything out of ordinary, from the plans we had," Anderson said of that over. "Couple of them hit the bad patches and it reversed as well. We wanted to keep it in that area so that it either keeps low or deviates. I was expecting maybe an LBW, or caught at mid-wicket. But it is always nice to see stumps cartwheel for a bowler of my age."

Anderson, at his peak, was a bowler dreaded by batsmen. That, at 38, when he doesn't get to play regularly, he has managed to be consistent in itself is remarkable. And he is pushing new boundaries in conditions that are considered toughest for pacers only reflect his hunger. "I felt good in Sri Lanka. I was happy to get the nod this week. Felt good and in good nick. It is important for bowlers to continue with the rhythm."

Kohli plays down rare home defeat

VENKATA KRISHNA B @Chennai

TEST defeats at home are rare for this Indian team. Since the time Virat Kohli took over as the five-day captain 2015, this is only their second defeat, following the one they suffered against Australia in 2017. That said, they have plenty to do ahead of the second Test that starts in three days at the MA Chidambaram Stadium, especially with regards to the batting department.

On a flat pitch, in response to England's first innings total of 578, India's top-order failed to turn up as they conceded a lead of 241 runs. That they were behind the eight ball the moment they lost the toss was there to see, but there was also the fact India have only themselves to blame. In recent years where India have dominated at home, the toss has never played a huge role. Even if they conceded big first innings totals, the batsmen responded to it by scoring higher than the opposition before their more skillful spinners took over.

In the first Test, both aspects were missing. The absence of Ravindra Jadeja meant England could target the inexperienced Washington Sundar and Shahbaz Nadeem. Throw in the fact that the top-order that are so used to milk runs, failed to deliver. While Kohli said the match was lost with the bat in the first innings, he looked annoyed when Ajinkya Rahane's performance since the 100 in Melbourne was brought up.

"Look if you're trying to dig something out, you're not going to get anything because there's nothing. I've said this many times in the past as well, along with Pujara, he (Rahane) is our most important Test batsman and he is going to continue to be. We believe in his abilities, we have believed in his abilities for a long time now and he's an impact player," Kohli said.

Skipper Virat Kohli waged a lone battle against England, scoring 72 | SPORTZPICS

Like Australia in 2017, who came here well prepared by having a camp in the UAE, England have arrived here on the back of a tour of Sri Lanka, where they won both Tests. It was in contrast to India whose last Test at home was back in 2019. "You could say they are well prepared but to say they're better prepared than us in our own conditions is not an accurate assessment. If you look at the second innings, when the ball was really turning and bouncing, both the sides were pretty much similar in terms of how they went about their second innings," he said.

Right through the Test, the SG ball has proved to be a talking point as it went soft by the 30th over. After Ravichandran Ashwin raised it on Monday, Kohli too echoed the same. "Quality of the ball was also not what we were pleased to see as that was also the case in the past. Just the ball completely being destroyed in 60 overs is not something that you experience as a Test side and any side could be prepared for."

IOA writes to min for vaccination of athletes

NEW DELHI: The Indian Olympic Association has written to Union Health Minister Harsh Vardhan, requesting him to consider vaccinating the Tokyo Olympics-bound athletes on a priority basis to give them sufficient time before leaving for the Games. As of now, 74 Indian athletes have qualified for the Olympics.

Oly qualifying marathon in New Delhi on March 7

NEW DELHI: The New Delhi National Marathon 2021, a qualification event for the Tokyo Olympics and recognised by Athletics Federation of India, will he held here on March 7. Rashpal Singh and Jyoti Gawte won the men's and women's titles respectively in the 2020 edition with timings of 2:23:29s and 2:50:37s.

No hugs but 1.5L condoms? IOC unveils rulebook

No socialising, no handshakes and definitely no hugs — that's what athletes at the coronavirus-postponed Tokyo Olympics can expect this summer, according to a virus rulebook released Tuesday by organisers. A look at it...

COVID GUIDELINES

- Athletes will be tested for the virus at least once every four days, and will be barred from competing if they return a confirmed positive test.
- Their time in Japan will be "minimised to reduce the risk of infection," and those staying at the Olympic Village will be expected to "avoid unnecessary forms of physical contact."
- The document lays out further detail on virus testing for athletes, with a negative test required within 72 hours of travelling to Japan and again immediately upon arrival.

WHAT ABOUT QUARANTINE?

There will be no quarantine for athletes, and they will still be allowed to attend training camps in Japan before the Games begin, but all movements must be rigorously logged and the use of public transport is subject to permission.

IS IT MANDATORY TO TAKE A VACCINE?

While vaccinations are recommended for athletes, it will not be a requirement to participate in the Games.

OTHER PROTOCOLS

- Athletes "must not visit gyms, tourist areas, shops, restaurants or bars" and can only go to "official Games venues".
- According to AFP, organisers still plan to hand out around 150,000 free condoms to athletes, but the new rulebook urges them to "limit your contact as much as possible."
- Wearing masks is mandatory except when they are playing, training, or in open space.

REVISION EXPECTED IN APRIL

The guide for athletes and team officials is set to be revised in April and again in June, and follows the release of handbooks for sports officials, media and broadcasters last week.

Double bagel for Barty, Nadal cruises

AFP @Melbourne

RAFAEL Nadal's injured back didn't slow down his bid for a record 21st Grand Slam title on Tuesday, as women's World No 1 Ashleigh Barty romped to a 6-0, 6-0 'double bagel' at the Australian Open.

On a day when women's champion Sofia Kenin also reached Round Two, but two-time winner Victoria Azarenka lost after breathing problems, Nadal and Barty were the headline acts at the coronavirus-delayed Slam. Nadal, who pulled out of last year's ATP Cup with back problems, beat Serbia's Laslo Djere 6-3, 6-4, 6-1 in one hour and 52 minutes.

Nagal ousted

India's Sumit Nagal lost 2-6, 5-7, 3-6 against Lithuania's Ricardas Berankis in the first round to make early exit.

Bamford helps Leeds post win

AFP @London

PATRICK Bamford scored his 100th career goal as Leeds United cruised to a 2-0 win against Crystal Palace on Monday.

Marcelo Bielsa's side took the lead through Jack Harrison's early strike at Elland Road. Bamford reached his century after the interval to seal Leeds' third win in their last four Premier League games.

His 12th goal of the season was a sweet moment for Bamford. "The key thing is getting the three points but it's nice to get to 100 career goals. It's probably long overdue," Bamford said. "After I missed that one in the first half I was kicking myself so I'm glad I scored."

Munita claims gold medal

PTI @Guwahati

UTTAR PRADESH'S Munita Prajapati created a national record in the under-20 women's 10000m race walk event on way to winning a gold medal on the penultimate day of the 36th National Junior Athletics Championships at the Sarusajai Stadium here, on Tuesday.

Prajapati clocked 47 minutes 53.58 seconds to erase the earlier national record of 48:25.90, held by Reshma Patel, and became the first Indian under-20 woman race walker to clock a sub-48 minute time over the distance. Prajapati, a 19-year-old from Varanasi, had finished third in the same event in the Federation Cup Junior U-20 Athletics Championships last month in Bhopal, where Patel had won gold with a time of 48:25.90.

Uttar Pradesh girl Khyati Mathur's show at the under-18 high jump pit also caught the eye. Having recovered from a knee injury, the Meerut girl produced a personal best leap of 1.77m to win the gold medal.

Bengaluru lose to Mohun Bagan

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

ATK MOHUN BAGAN took a huge step towards taking the top spot in the ISL with a 2-0 win over Bengaluru FC at the Jawaharlal Nehru Stadium in Margao on Tuesday.

The Mariners hardly had to break a sweat as two first-half goals from Roy Krishna (37') and Marcelinho (44') were enough to take them to within one point of table-toppers Mumbai City FC.

When the game got underway, it was Bengaluru who enjoyed more of the possession and given that Bagan have always been slow starters, it looked like the Blues would take charge.

What transpired in the first 45 minutes though was something rarely demonstrated by the Kolkata outfit as they switched into a different gear and rolled over Naushad Moosa's side. After soaking up the pressure from Bengaluru in the first ten to fifteen minutes, the frontline of Bagan started to cause the Bengaluru defence all sorts of problems.

Bengaluru FC's Sunil Chhetri (R) in action on Tuesday | SPORTZPICS

David Williams, who returned to the squad, was linking up play brilliantly which gave the likes of Krishna and Marcelinho the license to roam free and drag defenders out. Bagan eventually went onto take the lead in the 37th minute when Bengaluru defender Pratik Chaudhari lost possession close to his penalty area and ended up clumsily bringing down Krishna in the box while trying to recover.

The referee had no hesitation in awarding a penalty which was neatly tucked away by Krishna to score his twelfth goal of the season. Bengaluru hardly had a clear cut chance in the first half and the evening became more arduous when they made another defensive mistake which led to a second goal.

Their experienced defender Harmanjot Khabra rammed straight into Williams right at the edge of the box.

It was in Marcelinho territory and the Brazilian curled in a breathtaking free-kick past Gurpreet Singh Sandhu to make it 2-0 just before half-time.

Winchester College, one of Britain's oldest and most prestigious private schools, will open its ancient doors to girls for the first time in its six-century history, it announced on Tuesday. The school, founded in 1382 in Hampshire, southern England, said the move was part of "a new vision and significant programme of change".

PM$_{2.5}$ deaths much higher than estimated

India recorded 2.46 mn fatalities due to air pollution from burning fossil fuels in 2018

ENVIRONMENT

NEW DELHI: Fossil fuel-driven air pollution is responsible for 1 in 5 deaths worldwide and nearly 30.7 per cent of deaths can be attributed to air pollution from fossil fuels in India, second after China globally, according to new research from Harvard University.

The study in Environmental Research says that more than 8 million people are killed each year by air pollution from burning fossil fuels like coal and diesel. This is a large increase on previous estimates.

The researchers found the highest rates of deaths from fossil fuels in China and India, but every country suffers from the impacts of air pollution from fossil fuel combustion.

Uttar Pradesh reported the maximum number of premature deaths of 0.47 million, followed by Bihar, West Bengal, Maharashtra and Madhya Pradesh. Continent wise, in 2012, Asia reported the greatest number of premature deaths (7.91 million) followed by Europe, Africa, South America and North America, the study found.

While it's been known for decades that airborne particles are a danger to public health, there have been few epidemiological studies to quantify the health impacts at very high levels of exposure such as those found in China or India.

The researchers found that globally, exposure to particulate matter from fossil fuel emissions accounted for 21.5 percent of total deaths in 2012, falling to 18 per cent in 2018 due to tightening air quality measures in China.

"Our study adds to the mounting evidence that air pollution from ongoing dependence on fossil fuels is detrimental to global health. We can't in good conscience continue to rely on fossil fuels, when we know that there are such severe effects on health and viable, cleaner alternatives," said coauthor Eloise Marais, an associate professor in the Department of Geography at UCL.

To get a more fine-grained picture of where particle pollution comes from and its health impacts, the researchers used a 3-D model of atmospheric chemistry, known as GEOS-Chem, that divides Earth's surface into 50-by-60-km blocks. "Rather than rely on averages spread across large regions, we wanted to map where the pollution is and where people live," said lead author Karn Vohra, a grad student at the University of Birmingham. ENS

No Chinese baby boom as births fall in 2020

DEMOGRAPHY

BEIJING: China's number of registered births in 2020 dropped by nearly a third from the total births reported the year before, in the latest sign that relaxations in the country's strict family planning policy are failing to spark a baby boom.

After decades of a "one-child policy", Beijing changed the rules in 2016 to allow families to have two children as fears grew about China's fast-ageing population and shrinking workforce. Figures from the Public Security Ministry released Monday showed there were 10.04 million registered births in 2020, which is 15% down from the figure of registered births reported early last year for 2019.

In the same month, the official statistics bureau reported a higher figure of 14.65 million babies born in 2019 -- more than 30% above the latest birth data reported this week.

The data also points to a fourth consecutive year birth numbers declined.

The number of registered births is typically lower than the actual number of births later announced in China, as not all parents register their children immediately.

The gender balance was 52.7% boys and 47.3% girls.

One user on China's Twitter-like Weibo platform noted the birth figure was "lower than the number of people taking the college entrance examination", adding that ageing was going to become more serious in decades to come.

MONEY DOES BUY HAPPINESS

The general understanding among researchers is that happiness stops increasing after a certain level of income is reached. But a new study in PNAS finds that happiness continues to rise even with staggeringly high levels of income, though the more one earns the less marginal increases in pay seem to matter

WHY THIS STUDY IS IMPORTANT

In 2010, famous academics Daniel Kahneman and Angus Deaton found that happiness levels off at incomes of $75,000 a year. The current research by Matthew Killingsworth of the University of California, Berkeley, found no peak in happiness (experienced well-being) either at $75,000 or at any other income level

Killingsworth noted that the 2010 study found measured responses on a "Yes/No" dichotomy, in contrast with the continuous scale in the current study, which allowed more room for variation in responses

> While there may be some point beyond which money loses its power to improve well-being, the current results suggest that point may lie higher than previously thought
>
> Matthew Killingsworth, study author

WHO DOES THIS RESEARCH HELP?

People making trade-offs between salary and other goals in life

Employers fixing the salaries of employees

Institutions that can influence a government's economic policy

WHAT IS EXPERIENCED WELL-BEING?

How accurate will your response be to a question on your level of happiness/well-being if the query requires you to think back on your days and remember how you felt ("Overall, how satisfied are you with your life?")? Researchers say that rather than the evaluative well-being (life satisfaction) metric, experienced well-being may be more accurate, as people will be report how they feel in day-to-day moments

People may not be accurate when combining their memories into a single estimate — "an approach that is vulnerable to memory errors and biases in judgment," the researcher wrote

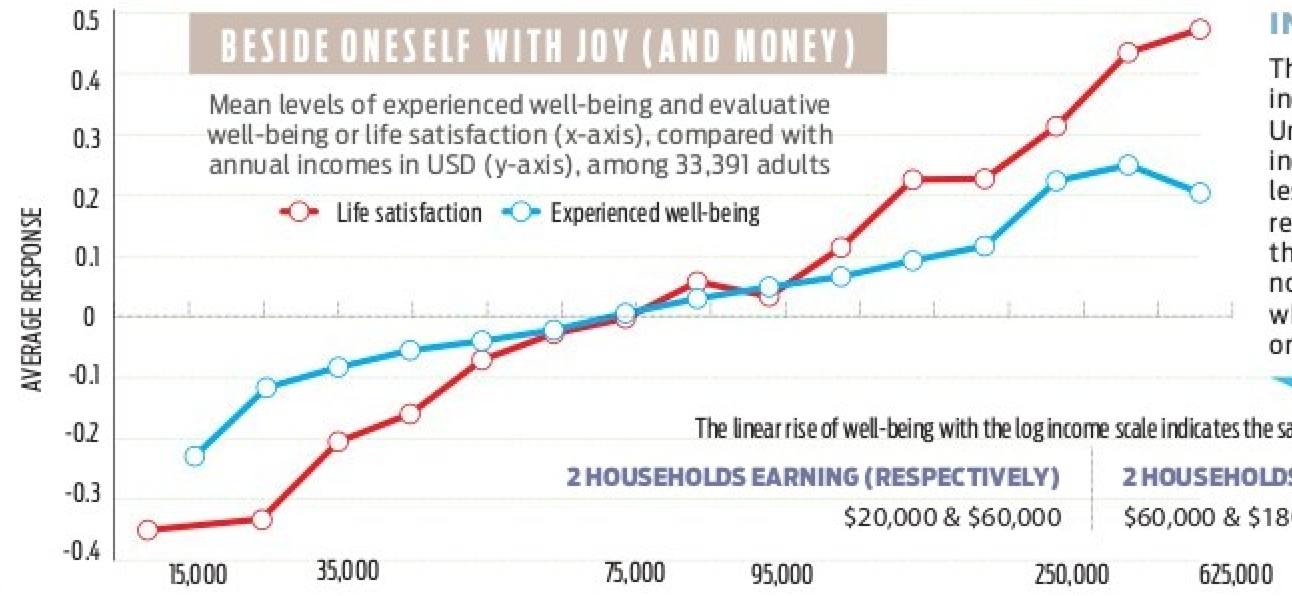
STUDY METHODOLGY

The researchers gathered the data through trackyourhappiness.org, in which study participants' smartphones were pinged at random moments during waking hours to elicit answers to "How do you feel right now?", on a continous response scale with "Very bad" and "Very good" on the extreme ends

1,725,994

reports of experienced well-being was collected from 33,391 employed adults aged 18 to 65. Each person was queried more times than what other studies did in the past, improving data precision

TEXT: ARAVINDAKSHAN S
ILLUSTRATION: AMIT BANDRE



INTERPRETATION

The data plotted here puts incomes on a log scale. Unlogged, the happiness-income equation seems to be less favourable to the researcher's conclusions, as the Economist noted, and is not radically different from what previous research said on the subject

The linear rise of well-being with the log income scale indicates the same difference in well-being between:

2 HOUSEHOLDS EARNING (RESPECTIVELY)	2 HOUSEHOLDS EARNING (RESPECTIVELY)
$20,000 & $60,000	$60,000 & $180,000

Don't dismiss AstraZeneca shot, says WHO

MEDICINE

GENEVA: The World Health Organization insisted Monday that the AstraZeneca vaccine was still a vital tool in the global fight against the coronavirus pandemic, after South Africa delayed the start of its inoculation program over concerns about the drug's efficacy against a virus variant.

Richard Hatchett, head of the Coalition for Epidemic Preparedness Innovations (CEPI), said it was "vastly too early to be dismissing this vaccine."

"It is absolutely crucial to use the tools that we have as effectively as we possibly can," he said, speaking at the WHO's regular bi-weekly press briefing on the pandemic.

Alarm was raised when a trial at Johannesburg's University of Witwatersrand concluded the AstraZeneca vaccine provided only "minimal" protection against mild to moderate Covid-19 caused by the variant first detected in South Africa. That was bad news for many poorer nations.

City's water almost poisoned by hacker

TECHNOLOGY

A hacker gained entry to the system controlling the water treatment plant of a Florida city of 15,000 and tried to taint the water supply with a caustic chemical, exposing a danger cybersecurity experts say has grown as systems become both more computerized and accessible via the internet.

> As industries become more digitally connected we will continue to see more states and criminals target these sites for the impact they have on society
>
> Robert Lee, CEO of Dragos Security

The hacker who breached the system at the city of Oldsmar's water treatment plant on Friday using a remote access program shared by plant workers briefly increased the amount of sodium hydroxide by a factor of one hundred (from 100 parts per million to 11,100 parts per million), Pinellas County Sheriff Bob Gualtieri said during a news conference Monday.

Sodium hydroxide, also called lye, is used to treat water acidity but the compound is also found in cleaning supplies such as soaps and drain cleaners. It can cause irritation, burns and other complications in larger quantities.

Fortunately, a supervisor saw the chemical being tampered with — as a mouse controlled by the intruder moved across the screen changing settings — and was able to intervene and immediately reverse it, Gualtieri said. Oldsmar is about 15 miles (25 kilometers) northwest of Tampa.

Gualtieri said the public was never in danger.

But he did say the intruder took "the sodium hydroxide up to dangerous levels."

Oldsmar officials have since disabled the remote-access system, and say other safeguards were in place to prevent the increased chemical from getting into the water.

FACT OF THE MATTER

La Nina cycle has peaked

CLIMATE

The 2020-2021 La Nina phenomenon has passed its peak, the UN weather agency said, but its impact on temperatures, rain and storm patterns will continue. La Nina refers to the cooling of surface temperatures in the central and eastern equatorial Pacific Ocean, occurring every 2-7 years. La Nina conditions have been in place since Aug-Sept 2020. "La Nina appears to have peaked in October-November as a moderate strength event," said the World Meteorological Organization. The WMO said there was a 65% likelihood that La Nina will persist during Feb-April. The odds shift rapidly thereafter, with a 70% chance that the tropical Pacific will return to neutral conditions in the cycle by April-June.

Saving vultures

KETO-A VET

WILDLIFE

Bangladesh has banned a painkiller used widely by farmers to treat cattle in an effort to save the country's vultures from extinction, the government said Tuesday. Like elsewhere in South Asia, vulture numbers have plummeted in Bangladesh, with the population now estimated at just 260 compared to 50,000 in the 1970s. The meat of dead cows that have been given Ketoprofen is highly toxic when consumed by the scavenging birds, leading to rapid kidney failure. In 2017 Bangladesh outlawed the non-steroid anti-inflammatory painkiller in two Vulture Safe Zones. But the new ban on the sale and production of the medicine approved on Monday applies nationwide.

CAUCASIANS AT RISK

Lung-protecting protein may cut virus variant spread in Asia

RESEARCH

NEW DELHI: Deficiency of a lung-protecting protein in Caucasians may have made Europe and North America more susceptible to the spread of a coronavirus variant as compared to Asia, suggests a study by Indian scientists which also reveals how mutant forms of the virus may find new ways to infect people.

The study, published in the journal Infection, Genetics and Evolution, assessed the global spread of the coronavirus variant with the D614G mutation, which is the predominant lineage infecting North America and European populations. This variant spread so rapidly that in just 10 weeks between February and March 2020 over 64.11 per cent of globally infected individuals were identified to carry the mutant virus starting from only 1.95 per cent in January.

However, the researchers, including those from the National Institute of Biomedical Genomics (NIBMG) in Kalyani, West Bengal, said this subtype took a significantly longer time to reach a 50 per cent relative frequency in East Asia -- 5.5 months -- compared to the 2.15 months it took in Europe, and the 2.83 months it took in North-America.

According to the scientists, a deficiency of the protein Alpha-anti-trypsin (AAT) across the populations of Europe and North-America is one of the main factors that explain the rapid spread of this variant in the two continents compared to its transmission in Asia.

"For the coronavirus to enter cells, its spike protein binds with the ACE2 receptor in human cells, and the human enzyme TMPRSS2 cleaves at the junction of two subunits S1 and S2 of the protein, enabling the virus to fuse with the cell," said study corresponding author Nidhan K Biswas from NIBMG.

"But due to the D614G mutation in the spike protein, the virus gained an additional cleavage site which enables it to fuse better with cells," Biswas told PTI.

In lineages of the coronavirus carrying the D614G mutation, the 614th molecule of the virus spike protein -- aspartic acid – denoted by D is replaced by the molecule glycine, noted as G. "Instead of one cleavage site, the mutated virus has two such sites, and it can take dual advantage of this and enter cells more easily," Biswas explained.

Based on the current study, he said this site in the virus is cleaved by the host protein neutrophil elastase which is normally involved in clearing up bacterial infections in the lungs.

The levels of the elastase molecules in the body are naturally kept in check by AAT whose main function is to protect the lungs from inflammation and tissue damage, the study noted.

"The issue is that if we have high neutrophil elastase then it also creates more damage to the lung cells. So there is a balance mechanism via the AAT enzyme that already exists by nature in everyone's lungs," Biswas explained.

According to the study, AAT deficiency is highly prevalent in European and North-American populations, but much less in East Asia.

Big rise in Russian mortality

STATISTICS

Russia recorded a dramatic increase in mortality in 2020 fuelled by the coronavirus pandemic, according to new official figures released late on Monday that showed more than 162,000 virus-related deaths. The preliminary estimates published by the Rosstat statistics agency showed that mortality had increased by 17.9 percent compared to 2019, Deputy Prime Minister Tatiana Golikova said Monday. "This excess mortality includes mortality due to Covid," she said during a coronavirus briefing broadcast on state television. Rosstat's figures showed that between April, when the pandemic hit Russia, and December, the country saw 162,429 coronavirus-related fatalities. December was the deadliest month of the pandemic last year, with 44,435 virus-related deaths. According to Rosstat's breakdown, 31,550 of those fatalities were mainly due to Covid-19, while in another 12,885 the patient tested positive but the virus was not considered the main cause of death.

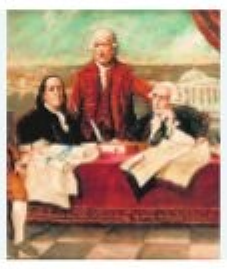
Treaty of Paris

A treaty concluding the Franco-British conflicts was signed by representatives of Great Britain and Hanover on one side and France and Spain on the other, on this day in 1763 in Paris

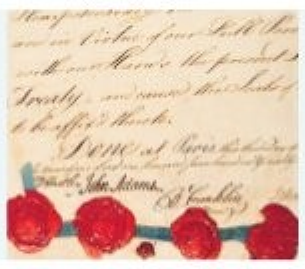
SEVEN YEARS' WAR

The Seven Years' War was fought from 1756-63. The first war to span the globe, it was chiefly fought between Britain, Prussia and Hanover, against France, Austria, Sweden, Saxony, Russia and Spain



ENDING THE WAR

France gave up all its territories in mainland North America. The British Government was also interested in ending the war. An unofficial agreement was made in June 1762



AMERICANS INVOLVED

There were three Americans in France to negotiate the treaty for the US — John Adams, Benjamin Franklin and John Jay. They signed the treaty alphabetically

A still from the film The Kitchen

This new dance film, set in a South Indian household in the '80s, combines Bharatanatyam with popping and locking as it explores the connection women share with the kitchen

FROM THE HEARTH

MONIKA MONALISA

Is it possible to speak without words? Vishwakiran Nambi says yes and shows how this can be done through his latest dance film The Kitchen. The 10-minute long movie, which was screened at Chamundeshwari Studios in Vasanth Nagar on Feb. 6, is set in a '80s South Indian kitchen. It features four women from different age groups who emote their stories through movement and abhinaya.

The Kitchen uses a blend of contemporary dance and Bharatanatyam to show the women's emotional connection with the space, especially since traditional domestic roles are assigned to women in a patriarchal society. "The story is inspired by the life and memory of my mother. I always saw her busy in the kitchen," says Nambi. He further adds, "The base of the movie is Bharatanatyam but all the dancers are trained in Indian contemporary dance, so you can see some elements of that too. We also wanted to see how we could make it more versatile so we added a little locking and popping as well." Since not everyone is well versed with dance vocabulary, there are certain conversations between the characters that enable the audience to get some context about the story.

It features dancers Shruti Suresh, Namitha B Rao, Aswathy Manoharan and Maithri Rao. Its music was composed by Govinda Vasantha, who is one of the founding members of the band Thaikkudam Bridge, and has worked as a music director for Tamil films, like 96.

Nambi had planned, conceptualised and shot this project in 2018, but its post production took time. "I never treated it like a music video but a movie, so budget was a slight constraint. And we wanted a producer who would understand the aesthetic side of the movie. Vandana Menon, the producer of the movie who is a dancer herself, helped us achieve that," says Nambi, who is known for choreography in Kannada movies like Kavaludaari and the National Award-winning Mahanati (Telugu/Tamil).

The 33-year-old director is currently sending the movie to various festivals like Kochi Biennale and International Film Festival of India before releasing it on an OTT platform. While people still have to wait to watch the movie, some who were a part of the screening could not help but applaud the work. Actor Ananya Kashyap says she connected with the movie on a personal level. "It's a very brave approach. Sometimes, it's difficult to express in words a bold subject like this but it gets even more difficult when you have to do so through movement. I have always been surrounded by strong women like my mother and sister, who were financially independent, but they still had to deal with a judgemental patriarchal society," says the actor of Mundina Nildana fame.

KNOW YOUR CITY

Arun Prasad, city-based history researcher, unravels interesting facts about Bengaluru in this weekly quiz series. So it's time for you to find out how familiar you are with the city, beyond its heritage buildings, IT parks and the pub culture.

THE QUIZ WILL BE PUBLISHED EVERY WEDNESDAY

Send answers to bengalurucityexpress@gmail.com with the subject line 'Know Your City Quiz'

Correct answers and names of first three respondents with right answers will be featured in CE on Thursday.

QUESTIONS

1. Fraser Town in Bangalore is named after Stuart Mitford Fraser, the tutor and guardian of Krishna Raja Wadiyar IV, who was the maharaja of erstwhile Mysore. It was established in 1906 to de-congest the growing population in Cantonment area. In 1988, BBMP renamed Fraser Town after the well known Chalukya King who ruled Deccan during 7th century. What is the extension's present name?
2. Rice Memorial Church on Avenue Road is one of the oldest heritage buildings in Pete (old city) area. It was established as a Canarese Chapel in 1834 and later rebuilt, assuming the present form in 1917. Name the evangelist from the London Missionary Society who initiated and established anglo-vernacular schools in the city and after whom the church was named.
3. Name the Bangalorean who became the first Indian badminton player to win the prestigious All England Open Badminton Championships and was ranked world no. 1 in 1980. He was also awarded the Arjuna award in 1972 and the Padma Shri in 1982 by the Government of India.

Back on stage

Shwetha Srivatsav took to social media to post a video about her dance rehearsal experience for an upcoming TV episode for Valentine's Day. She had doubts about whether to sign up for the show after a six-year gap of performing on stage. "I was not sure and skeptic to take it or not. However I want to give a try though. Being an amateur dance, had just two days of rehearsals," she said in the post. Now that's the spirit!

Older and wiser

Shwetha Chengappa penned an emotional post on social media on her birthday, thanking her friends, family and fans. "I might not be the richest person in the world but I have happiness, peace of mind and most importantly the gift of life. Thank you God, for blessing me with such priceless gifts. On my birthday, I celebrate these little but priceless things," she said.

Run for a cause at this 7km race, where you can learn more about 7,000 rare diseases and the importance of diagnosing them early

RARING TO GO

EXPRESS FEATURES

Prasanna Shirol is a man on a mission. Come Feb. 28 and the city-based resident will gear up for a 7km-long run. Called the Race for 7, the event is being organised by the Organisation of Rare Diseases in India (ORDI). The idea, says founder-director Shirol, is to spread awareness about rare diseases, where the number '7' plays a crucial role. "It represents the worldwide number of such diseases, which is 7,000. Other than this, seven months is also the average number of years taken to diagnose such a disease," explains Shirol, whose child also has a rare disease: Pompe.

The race is the organisation's sixth such event and will be held on Feb. 28, which also marks Rare Disease Day. Shirol explains that while 7,000 such diseases are known worldwide, treatment is only available for over 500. The others require supportive care. The father's own experience with learning about such diseases in 2008/2009 is what prompted him to take up advocacy for the cause. Eventually, ORDI was set up in 2013. "These diseases need to be properly diagnosed in order to be treated. But even after diagnosis, there is lack of awareness about access to medicine and long term care. The situation may be worse in villages because government hospitals are even lesser equipped with identifying these diseases," he explains.

Problems can rise internally as well. Since many of these diseases are genetic in nature, people often stay mum. Breaking this stigma is what Shirol hopes to do with the race. While typical marathon bibs carry a registration number, these will also include the disease a person is running for. "People will get prompted to at least look up the name and learn more about the condition," he says of the virtual race, which will be tracked through an app. "The benefit of doing it virtually is that we are seeing participation from different nooks and corners like villages in Kerala or Rajasthan and Siliguri."

The race will take place on Feb. 28. For details, check ORDI's website.

BACK WITH A BANG

Twenty-year-old Bengaluru racer Sohil Shah, who recently won the 50-lap battle in the KM50 Grand Prix, speaks to CE about racing after almost a year, future plans and more

MONIKA MONALISA

When Bengaluru racer Sohil Shah returned to the track after close to 11 months, it was nothing short of a homecoming for him. The feeling was made sweeter when the 20-year-old won the 50-lap battle in the KM50 Grand Prix LGV category, which happened in Coimbatore on Feb. 7. Or as the youngster says, "It was a double celebration for me."

The race was special for more reasons than one. It also marked the first time Shah tried a 50-lap race. "Usually in India, we have 15-18 laps but this was the first time we had 50 laps. The usual time we drive for is 20-30 minutes but here it went on for over an hour, which was grilling," he says, light-heartedly adding that after the race, the first thing he did was to have lots of water before celebrating. Also adding heat, literally, was the weather at Coimbatore. "While the outside temperature was 30-35 degrees Celsius, the fire proof suits and helmet we wore made it feel like it was 50 degree Celsius," he says.

Lack of practice due to the pandemic did prove to be a setback for Shah, who did not get to prepare a lot before his race. "I did have four practice sessions two days ahead of the race, which lasted for 2-3 hours. Initially it did feel out of place but soon, I got used to it and it felt just like before," says Shah, who started racing professionally in 2018, when he was 17. But his love for speed emerged when he was nine. "I used to go to for go-karting, which soon became a hobby," says Shah, who has won championships like MRF 1300 and LGB-F4 Rookie. Although his parents were happy about Shah's new fondness for speed, they were sceptical about it being his choice of career. "They were particular about me concentrating on studies too. Now they are supportive of my career," says Shah, whose favourites are Lewis Hamilton, Jehan Daruvala and Narain Karthikeyan. "More than idolising them, I like to learn from how they dealt with a particular situation," says Shah, who is currently pursuing his Bachelors in Visual Arts. Satisfied with his win and happy to be back in Namma Ooru, Shah is now looking forward to the Asian championships, which will depend on when borders reopen.

Usually in India, we have 15-18 laps but this was the first time we had 50. The usual time we drive for is 20-30 minutes but here it went on for over an hour — Sohil Shah, racer

- Wash the sabudana and soak it water overnight.
- Coarse-grind the roasted peanuts with two green chillies. Keep aside.
- Fry the potato in oil with some salt till it goes soft; add the chillies and sauté.
- Put cumin seeds in and fry for a minute.
- Over low flame, add the sabudana, salt, sugar, and peanut-green chilli mixture.
- Pour the ghee in and mix all the ingredients together for two minutes. Serve hot.

FIT BIT

EKA PADA DHANURASANA

(ONE LEGGED BOW POSE)

In Sanskrit, 'Eka' means 'one', 'pada' means 'foot', 'dhanu' means 'bow' and 'asana' means 'pose'. It is an advanced pose requiring flexibility of the spine, hip flexors, quads and shoulder joints. It helps to prepare the spine and upper back for a deeper stretch. This asana is a prone backbend, where one has to work against gravity to lift the chest up high. This requires core strength and full-body engagement. The leg on the floor provides stability. This helps you go into Purna Dhanurasana, with ease.

STEPS

- Lie down on your stomach. Give a gap between your legs and keep both hands straight.
- Exhale, bend your left knee, bringing your heel close to your buttocks. While arched, hold your ankle with your left hand.
- Now take your chest up from the ground while breathing.
- Raise the left leg a little more and try to pull your ankle by your left hand while breathing more.
- Maintain the balance of abdominal weight while pulling the ankle and keep the head absolutely straight.
- Depending on the flexibility of your body, you can raise it further.
- Pay attention to breathing and exhale while performing one-leg arched pose. Make sure that the right leg is straight on the floor
- Stay in this position as long as possible.
- Slowly loosen the muscles of the body and bring the buttock and thigh towards the ground.
- Now bring the torso to the ground.
- Then, release the heel with both hands. Come to the initial state of posture.
- Repeat the same with the other leg.

BENEFITS

- Improves digestion and stretches the hamstrings.
- Strengthens the stomach muscles and muscles of thighs and buttocks.
- Increases lung capacity.
- Good exercise for respiratory diseases such as asthma.
- Energises your vertebrae.
- Provides physical and mental comfort.
- Beneficial for relieving joint and back pain.
- Increases flexibility.
- Clears sinus, mucus problems or phlegm in the respiratory tract. Internal organs are massaged and obesity is reduced.
- Improves liver and kidney function. Keeps internal organs healthy.
- Helps to get relief from facial problems and body pain.

LIMITATIONS

- Beginners must remember to not go beyond your limits.
- People suffering from hernia, ulcers, colitis, or any stomach disease and pregnant women, should avoid this.

'IN MY TEACHERS' OPINION, I WAS ARROGANT AND OUTSPOKEN'

AJ: The National Awards ceremony story is my all-time favourite. Your next film, An Encounter with Faces (1978), not only won awards in India, but was nominated for an Oscar in 1979 in the Documentary Short Subject category. It's a very moving film about an orphanage, and I'm sad to say, it's still so relevant. When I saw it again on YouTube recently I was struck by the first shot. How did you do that?

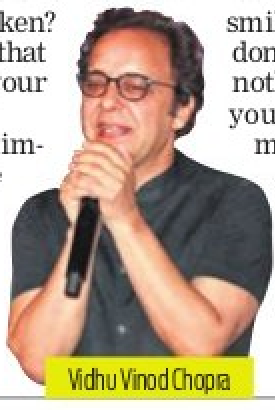
VVC: You mean the shot coming into the railway station? The cameraman refused to take the shot so I did it myself. I handheld the Arriflex 2c 35mm camera and rotated it. Once the train pulled into the station, I ran after the kid onto the platform—so the movement was continuous—it was all in one shot.

AJ: It's a great opening.

VVC: An Encounter with Faces won many honours, including the Golden Peacock Award at the International Film Festival of India held in Delhi on 16th January 1979. The Best Short Film Award was given to me by the great Polish director Krzysztof Zanussi. The event was widely covered by the press with write-ups and photographs. Abhijat, let me tell you something more about Mr L.K. Advani's kindness towards me. He knew I was not well off, so after I had left the FTII, he made me a member on the FTII Governing Council. My airfare to attend the meetings was paid, and so for many months I lived on that airfare—880 rupees. I would save the airfare and buy a third-class ticket and travel by train. Once I was appointed on the Governing Council, they discovered I was not even an FTII graduate. I had not passed my final exams because some teachers didn't like me. In their opinion, I was arrogant and outspoken and not a particularly good student. I was good at making films but poor when it came to submitting papers. When I got appointed a GC member, the FTII staff objected because I had failed the finals. That's when they decided to give me the diploma. So I got my diploma two years after I had actually left the film institute. By that time I had won several awards for my short films, including an Oscar nomination.

AJ: Why were you regarded as too outspoken? Was it your honesty that led to the spat with your tutors?



Vidhu Vinod Chopra

VVC: Maybe. It's important for me to be honest—even though it was often inconvenient. I wanted to shape my own life and have never knowingly compromised while expressing my thoughts or making movies. I may make a bad film but it never crossed my mind to make a dishonest one just because it might make money.

AJ: Did that have something to do with the way your father thought?

VVC: Probably yes. He once told me: 'I have no problem if you become a cobbler in our narrow lane, but you must be the best cobbler.' On that same day, he told me a story that had a great impact on me. There was once a great saint in Kashmir who lived in the nearby hills. The legend goes that one day the ruling maharaja, riding his horse, went to meet the sadhu. He found the saint sitting on a rock enjoying the wintry sun. The maharaja did not dismount and from where he sat, he addressed the sadhu: 'I have heard many things about you, Swamiji. Please tell me what I can do for you. Can I build an ashram for you? Just say the word and you can have anything you want.' The sadhu looked up and could only see the silhouette of the maharaja against the bright sunlight. The sadhu said: 'My friend, you're blocking the sun falling on me. Could you please move a little?' The maharaja immediately got off his horse and moved away. He repeated once again: 'Swami-ji, please tell me what I can do for you.' The saint smiled and said: 'You have done what I wanted. There's nothing more I want.' 'But you have asked nothing of me.'

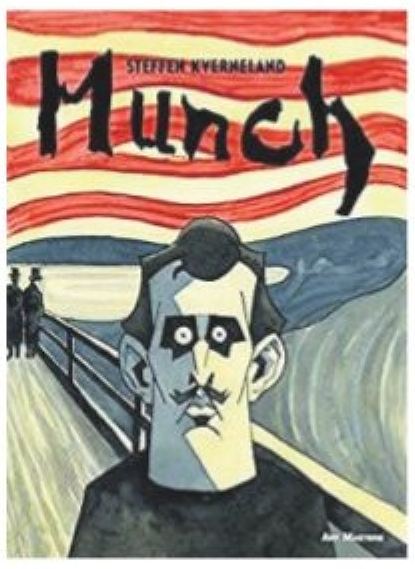
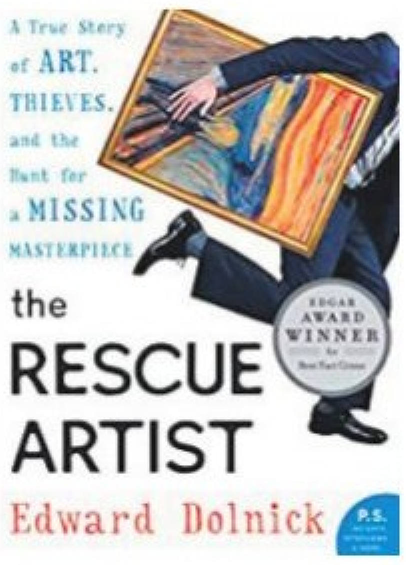
Norway: A publisher's paradise





A True Story of ART, THIEVES, and the Hunt for a MISSING MASTERPIECE
the RESCUE ARTIST
Edward Dolnick
EDGAR AWARD WINNER
P.S.

Norway is not just one of the world's wealthiest countries, it is also the world's happiest (yes, it is ranked higher than Bhutan in the Global Happiness Index!). It is also the home of Edward Munch and his iconic painting Scream, which was the most expensive piece of art ever sold at an auction — it went for $120 million.

What people don't know about Norway, however, is that it is a writers' and publishers' paradise. It also initiated one of the most innovative projects in the publishing industry — Future Library. Started by Scottish artist Katie Paterson in 2014, the project would result in a collection of 100 books, printed 100 years in the future, in 2114, with paper from trees out of a newly planted forest in Norway. Every year, until 2114, the Future Library Trust will pick a new author to contribute a manuscript. The day I met one of the trustees, they had just selected (and not yet publicly announced) the fourth author Elif Shafak — the first three were Margaret Atwood, David Mitchell and Sjon.

There are many reasons why Norway is a publishing haven. It has a 100 per cent literacy rate, free public universities, and above all, an Arts Council that purchases 1,000 copies of every Norwegian title for distribution to libraries. The government has also exempted books from Value Added Tax (VAT) and banned deep discounting of new books, thus protecting booksellers from online competition.

During my short stay in Oslo for the Wisdom Together Conference, I managed a quick visit to the bookstore Eldorado, which opened in 2003 and is located on the site of the former Eldorado cinema. The large store has a great range of Norwegian and international titles and an extensive English-language section. Unusually, publishing companies rent space for their books in the store, allowing Eldorado to retain overall control.

When it comes to books on Munch, The Rescue Artist by Edward Dolnick is an entertaining account of Charley Hill, the world's greatest art detective, and his search for Scream after it was stolen from the National Gallery in Oslo. The graphic novel and part biography Munch by Steffen Kverneland explores the artist's relationships and obsessions.

Norway has produced a trio of celebrated authors who have received the Nobel Prize for Literature: Bjørnstjerne Bjørnson, Knut Hamsun and Sigrid Undset. Bjørnson's name is synonymous with 19th century Norwegian literature and his poem, Ja, vi elsker dette landet, is also known as Norway's national anthem. Knut Hamsun is regarded as the principal leader of Norway's Neo-Romantic revolution; its notions are articulated in his novels Hunger and Pan.

My personal favourite is Sigrid Undset, considered the godmother of Norwegian literature. Raised on her country's profound traditions of folklore and cultural mythology, Undset's fictional narratives are greatly influenced by the framework of national pride and identity. Her critically acclaimed trilogy, Kristin Lavransdatter (The Wreath, Wife, The Cross), published from 1920 to 1922, is a 1,200-page saga that chronicles the spiritual enlightenment and intellectual evolution of a woman from birth to death. The book supposedly inspired parts of Gone with the Wind.

The latest sensation from Norway is Karl Ove Knausgaard. His six-volume critically acclaimed My Struggle has brought him not only great financial success but bitter blowback from his family and friends. I have personally enjoyed Autumn which is written in the form of letters to his unborn daughter.

Odd, isn't it, that some of the greatest literary works come from a country whose population is half that of Bengaluru and does not speak English?

(The author is a technologist based in Silicon Valley who is gently mad about books)

Book by Bill Gates to be out this month

Technologist and philanthropist Bill Gates' book, How To Avoid A Climate Disaster, will be out on Feb. 16 and is being published by Penguin Random House. In it, Gates proposes a plan for preventing the worst of climate change by articulating what it will take to eliminate greenhouse gas emissions. He shows the new tools needed to fight climate change: zero-carbon ways to produce electricity, make things, grow food, keep our buildings cool and warm, and move people and goods around the world.

URBAN BOURBON

Hriday Ranjan
Writer, comedian

Jest in peace

Stand-up comedian Munawar Faruqui has been released from judicial custody after spending a month behind bars, for a joke that he did not crack. Legally, the case was razor-thin, and yet he was painted as a villain, and accused of trying to spread disharmony in society. It is easy to jump the gun and blame the government of being autocratic in its views. But I would request you to look at the matter through another lens. It was actually a technique by the higher authorities to hone and nurture stand-up comedians.

As one of the oldest civilisations on earth, we have carried forward the tradition of scriptures by having our governments decide for us what is funny, and what is offensive. When I started doing stand-up comedy, we had to worry about a joke being unfunny. But these days, we have to write keeping an imaginary uncle in mind – one who might get offended and launch into a Twitter rant.

It wouldn't be wrong to say that we are moving backwards as a society when it comes to our attitudes towards humour. Some of the funniest scenes in our comedy films would be considered offensive by either the Right or the Left. Take the Draupadi scene from the iconic Jaane Bhi Do Yaaron – it is impossible to pull that off in today's times. Crime Master Gogo from Andaz Apna Apna would have to be politically correct. If released today, Hera Pheri's Babu Bhaiyya would be accused of caricaturing Marathi people insensitively.

Plato once said that even the gods love jokes. But Plato wasn't around to observe our godmen. Comedian Kiku Sharda went to jail for impersonating a godman on a comedy show. One would assume godmen have overcome their worldly attachments, leave alone getting offended over a joke. But then, when godmen are on YouTube and Instagram, what stops them from joining the long queue of the offended?

A still from Andaz Apna Apna

And come to think of it, a jail term might be all the grind that a stand-up comedian needs. When we attend open mics, it is to hone our jokes in front of tough crowds. And what can be a tougher crowd than thieves and murderers? When a comic performs well, they are said to have 'killed' or 'destroyed'. What could be a greater challenge than trying to kill in front of actual killers and destroyers? As comedians, we are trying to build a reputation for ourselves. Munawar will now have his reputation precede him – every person he meets, every project he takes up, forever, till his final day. In fact, I'd recommend the government starts a new scheme – Pradhan Mantri Hasyakavi Berozgaari Yojana – where comedians can crack a joke, and then spend time in jail. Stream it live as part of Digital India, and market it as a version of Bigg Boss – but with comedians in jail for the jokes they cracked.

If it seems like a grouse I nurse against the Right, you couldn't be more mistaken. The Indian Left has mastered the art of getting offended, case in point being last week's issue against the Myntra logo. In India, the Left and the Right combine forces to take offence to jokes. It's the kind of ideological amalgamation that Nehru would be proud of. And saddled between the Left and the Right are comedians, who are standing with a mic, meekly trying to convey the state of affairs with punchlines. A good laugh heals a lot of hurts, they say. What they don't tell you is that a good laugh hurts a lot of heels.

IT'S official: Writers Siddharth-Garima to make directorial debut with Saale Aashiq

The popular screenwriter duo of Siddharth and Garima is all set to turn directors for the gritty youth drama, Saale Aashiq. The film will mark their directorial debut in Bollywood.

"The kind of stories that we want to tell need to have a very strong social message at heart. We are glad that Sony Pictures Films India is equally excited to take it ahead. We are super excited to be associated with them," Siddharth-Garima said in a statement.

"Stoked to announce our next... The much awaited #DebutDirectorial with the love-soaked & bloodlorn #SaaleAashiq ... Thank you @sonypicsfilmsin @SonyPicsIndia @vivekkrishnani & team @ladasingh @abhi_mehrotra for the faith and support. Let's make this happen!," Siddharth-Garima tweeted on Monday evening.

Siddharth and Garima rose to fame as writers and lyricists in films such as Goliyon Ki Raasleela Ram-Leela, Bajirao Mastani, Padmaavat, Toilet Ek Prem Katha, and more recently Kabir Singh.

Saale Aashiq is set to go on the floor in the second half of 2021.

Taapsee also reacted to a news piece on Twitter stating the film, based on the life of Indian women's cricket team captain Mithali Raj. The piece describes Mithali as "former team India cricketer". Reacting to the tweet, the actress wrote: "You do realise she is still the captain of the Indian women's cricket team that's going for the upcoming World Cup. Exactly the reason why this film needs to be made ! 'Former'!!! #ShabaashMithu." Taapsee is currently undergoing cricket training for her role in the Mithali Raj biopic. The actress, who recently finished filming Rashmi Rocket, is currently shooting for her other upcoming film Looop Lapeta.

LIKITH SHETTY TO HEADLINE KIRIK KEERTHI'S DIRECTORIAL DEBUT

The TV host and actor is foraying into direction, and will be collaborating with the Sankashta Kara Ganapathi and Family Pack hero for a love story

Kirik Keerthi

CE FEATURES

KIRIK Keerthi is moving towards his first directorial venture, and he will be wielding the megaphone for a film titled Preethi Maduve Ithyaadi. Headlining the project will be Sankashta Kara Ganapathi and Family Pack hero Likith Shetty. Kirik Keerthi is known as a television host and actor in films Eradane Sala and Chitraali. He has also worked as a radio professional, and became a familiar face for his social media activities, and participation in Bigg Boss Kannada.

According to a source, he will also be taking up production responsibilities for Preethi Maduve Ithyaadi, which tells a love story. This is the first time he is teaming up with Likith. The two have finalised the script, and hunt is on for the heroine now.

Likith Shetty, who is a popular name in the Tulu film industry, came to the limelight with his romantic drama Sankashta Kara Ganapathi. He has joined hands with director Arjun Kumar once again for his next film, Family Pack, which is bankrolled by Puneeth Rajkumar's PRK Productions.

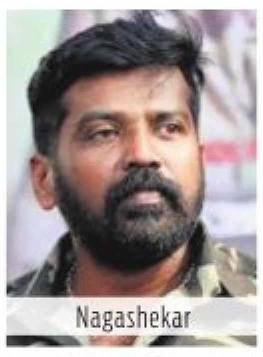
Nagashekar looks to make his Bollywood debut; in talks with Zaid Khan for a love story

The director, who is planning to enter the Hindi film industry, has approached the Banaras hero for his project; the actor tells CE that irrespective of the language he works in, every film of his will be made in Kannada as well

A SHARADHAA

NAGASHEKAR's passion for direction is taking him places. Having established his name in Kannada cinema with films like Sanju Weds Geetha and Mynaa, the director is making his mark in Telugu films with the remake of Love Mocktail, and in Tamil with November Mazhaiyil Naanum Avalum. The director's next Shrikrishna@gmail.com starring Krishna and Bhavana will be released in Kannada an d Malayalam. He is now looking to make his Bollywood debut soon. The director is in talks with Zaid Khan and plans to make it in Kannada and Hindi.

Zaid Khan, the son of politician Zameer Ahmed Khan, is making his acting debut with Jayatheertha's Banaras, which is now in the post-production stages. Confirming that he is in talks with Nagashekar, the newcomer in Sandalwood says, "Nagashekar has come up with a love story, and I have liked the first half of the script narrated to me. We will be taking it further only after I listen to the rest of the narration."



Nagashekar

Zaid stresses that he wants the movie to be a bilingual. "Irrespective of the language of the film I am a part of, I am sure that it should see a Kannada release. This will be the only condition I will put forth to any director who approaches me. Secondly, I have been told that I have the face and personality that fits the profile of a Bollywood hero, which is a plus point, and I would want to encash on that. However, I will make sure that it has a Kannada version," he adds.

Nagashekar has come up with a love story, and I have liked the first half of the story narrated to me. We will be taking it further only after I listen to the rest of the narration

BANARAS TO BE OUT IN MULTIPLE LANGUAGES?

Zaid Khan's first film, Banaras, is likely to see a pan-India release. According to the actor, a few distributors who have watched the film have loved the way Banaras has been shown in Jayateertha's directorial venture. They have shown an interest in releasing the Kannada their respective languages -- Telugu, Tamil, Malayalam, and Hindi. The makers will be taking a final decision on this in the next couple of weeks. According to Zaid, films like Baahubali and KGF series have helped Kannada films get a universal appeal. "So we are looking at bringing Banaras in multiple languages and giving it a worldwide release," he says. Produced by Y B Reddy, Banaras has Sonal Monteiro as the female lead. It has music by Ajaneesh B Lokanath and cinematography by Advaitha Gurumurthy.

The Falcon And The Winter Soldier series to release on March 19

CE FEATURES

AFTER much delay, the Anthony Mackie and Sebastian Stan-starrer web series The Falcon and The Winter Soldier will release on March 19.

The new television installment from Marvel Cinematic Universe will see Mackie and Stan reprise their roles of Falcon and Winter Soldier respectively from the Avengers franchise, for a global adventure that will put their abilities and their patience to test. The journey will unfold after Falcon receives the Captain America shield from superhero retiree Steve Rogers.

Directed by Kari Skogland with Malcolm Spellman as chief writer, the series also stars Daniel Bruhl as Zemo, Emily VanCamp as Sharon Carter, and Wyatt Russell as John Walker.

The making of the show hasn't been smooth. The filming for the show began in January 2019 in Puerto Rico, and postponed due to a string of earthquakes. The production hit another setback due to the pandemic last July. The final shots were wrapped in October last year.

The six-episode series will release on Disney+ Hotstar Premium
